Traffic Tangle Faces Patrons Of New City Post Office

By ROBERT POPP

A lot of time - honored East Liverpool traffic patterns may come apart at the seams within a few days when the Post Office moves from Broadway to Dresden Ave.

Traffic movement is involved directly in the new home of the Post Office because the facility is a major hub of community activity, particularly in the morning when business and professional men and the office help at industrial plants converge at that one spot to pick up the overnight mail — a tradition for starting the new day.

Driving to and from the present Post Office — or for that matter, finding a parking space close by — never was a motorists' dream, but over the years all the patrons devised some sort of an accomodation with the traffic rules that seemed to work reasonably well.

NOW THE motorists must—and the city should — think about changes that might ease traffic problems a little with the advent of the new Post Office.

★ ★ ★ Morning Mail Pickup May Be Mixup ★ ★ ★

The traditional morning stop at the Post Office probably will prove most difficult for the businessmen who begin their trip from the North Side-Maplewood area, headed eventually for a store or office along E. 5th or E. 6th Sts.

The logical path for those drivers would be along one of the streets which connect lower St. Clair Ave. with Dresden Ave. in the area of Webber Way. On the city map, which does not show terrain or the condition of the pavement, a stranger would be able to discern no problems.

But the neat lines on the map don't tell the story. If any kind of a traffic rush develops, the drive between St. Clair and Dresden promises some major headaches — particularly in slippery weather.

Grant St. and E. 9th St. both offer direct connections between St. Clair and Dresden. E. 8th St. also is a link, if the motorist will take a slight jog where E. 8th deadends into Lincoln Ave.

BUT ALL THREE of the streets are so narrow that it's difficult for cars to pass when moving in opposite directions. Parking is restricted to one side of the thoroughfares, but still it's sometimes necessary for one driver to stop, then back and maneuver, to provide passing clearance for an oncoming car.

The pavements are rough, a melange of brick, blacktop and concrete, and the surfaces cause a car to pitch like a ship in a heavy sea.

Grant St. offers the worst of the three alternatives for a St. Clair - Dresden shortcut, particularly because of the steep grade on the approach to Lin-

Nixon Picks Murphy As His 'Voice'

Veteran Diplomat Set For Work At State Department

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon, confident that President Johnson will undertake no foreign policy initiative without his concurrence, is sending a veteran diplomatic troubleshooter to the State Department as the voice of his new administration.

Nixon said that retired diplomat, Robert D. Murphy, will oversee foreign policy matters during the period of government transition in an agreement by which Johnson will consult with his Republican successor before acting abroad.

Murphy will take his new post as soon as possible, perhaps within the next few days.

Nixon was not explicit on the question of what will happen if he and Johnson differ on some foreign policy undertaking between now and the inauguration Jan. 20. He disclaimed any veto power over policies of the Democratic administration. But he made clear that he expects nothing to happen over his objection.

Nixon said that in Vietnam policy, there is no disagreement between the incoming and outgoing presidents on "broad general policy outlines."

He added at a Thursday news conference: "I think President Johnson is keenly aware of the fact that it would be very difficult for him to make any kind of an agreement on a major policy matter unless he could give assurance to the parties on the other side that it would be implemented and respected by the next president."

Nixon indicated that the machinery of the agreement went into operation when he was at the White House Monday. He said the discussions there covered Vietnam, a statement to be made by the United States at the NATO conference and "other matters that are not currently in the news."

No Coalition With Reds, He Tells U.S.

Reported Seeking Other Unspecified Pledges From LBJ

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu was reported edging toward attending the Paris peace talks today provided Washington assures him that no coalition government with the Communists will be thrust upon him.

As part of the price for abandoning his boycott of the talks Thieu is also reported to be seeking other unspecified promises from President Johnson.

While the United States is favorably disposed to meet Thieu's wishes, diplomatic sources cautioned that there are other complications which could slow any final settlement.

Reliable officials in Saigon feel the break—if it comes — may take as much as two more weeks and will be coupled with changes within the South Vietnamese Cabinet.

It was reported by authoritative sources—and officially denied—that Premier Tran Van Huong had submitted his resignation to Thieu.

On the military front, the U.S. Command accused North Vietnam of violating a mutual agreement to keep the demilitarized zone free of military activity and sent American bombers streaking over the zone to attack bunkers and ammunition stores. A spokesman said 34 North Vietnamese soldiers were killed and at least a dozen bunkers were destroyed in the southern half of the DMZ.

Huong's resignation was submitted as a result of differences arising partly from the stalemated peace talks, the sources said. It was part of an over-all Cabinet crisis which could result in Huong's return to office as head of a stronger government or his departure from Thieu's regime.

May Underscore Obstacle

Election Reforms Get New Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — The move to overhaul the presidential election system has picked up the support of two more senators, but their differing ideas on how to do it underscore what may be a major obstacle to reform.

Republican Strom Thurmond of South Carolina said Thursday he could support either of two previously suggested proposals while Democrat Ralph Yarborough of Texas came out with still another.

Thurmond is a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee's constitutional amendments subcommittee.

The subcommittee plans hearings next week on proposals to change the electoral system. Chairman Birch Bayh, D-Ind., called the hearings after Richard M. Nixon's razor-thin victory narowly averted deadlocking the Electoral College and throwing the election into the House.

Thurmond said he thinks a constitutional amendment dividing a state's electoral college votes in proportion to its popular vote stands a chance if Nixon pushes it.

The South Carolina Republican said he is in favor of abandoning the present winner-take-all system which enables a presidential candidate to walk off with a state's entire electoral vote no matter how small his popular-vote margin.

LBJ, Nixon Invite NATO To Hold Anniversary Here

BULLETIN

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Leaders of the Western Alliance joined today in castigating the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia. Some demanded a stern warning to Moscow that the allies would act against any new military thrusts in Europe.

BRUSSELS (AP) — President Johnson and President-elect Nixon joined today in inviting the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to celebrate its 20th anniversary in Washington next spring.

The joint invitation was extended by Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the last big NATO meeting he is attending before he leaves office with Johnson—the semiannual meeting of the alliance's council of ministers.

Some diplomats hope the 20th anniversary session will be a summit meeting at which Nixon could see the top leaders of the 15-nation alliance all together at the same time.

Today's session was held at NATO headquarters in the Brussels suburb of Evere. It was marked by tributes to Rusk for his eight years of service to the alliance, from a series of foreign ministers including Michael Stewart of Britain, Willy Brandt of West Germany and Mitchell Sharp of Canada.

Rusk said the United States will welcome any movement toward unity that would help Europe to speak with one voice in the councils of the alliance.

Barr To Act In Pittsburgh Money Crisis

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mayor Joseph M. Barr plans to cut short a Florida vacation in an effort to persuade state legislators to authorize higher taxes for Pittsburgh.

Burrell Cohen, Barr's assistant, said Thursday the mayor will be in Harrisburg Monday to seek aid in what appears to be a financial crisis in the city.

The hasty decision came after arbitrators ruled Thursday that city police and firemen should receive wage hikes of $2,000 and $1,800.

The policemen's salary boost will cost the city $2.75 million next year, said Cohen, the city's representative in both arbitrations, Pittsburgh faces a total debt of about $5.5 million in 1969, he added.

Earlier Thursday police arbitrator Thedore Kheel ruled that patrolmen should receive a $1,300 pay increase, effective Jan. 1 and another $700 raise Jan. 1, 1970.

Statement Also Questions Worth Of War

Bishops Support Pill Ban; Slate Vote On Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roman Catholic bishops are facing a showdown vote on a birth control compromise that calls use of contraceptives a sin but says married couples who break the ban won't be cut off from the church.

The proposed bishops' statement also questions the worth of the war in Vietnam and urges draft exemptions for youths with a conscientious objection to a specific war.

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops, planning a final vote on its pastoral letter, finishes a five-day struggle over stands on artificial birth control and war.

The American bishops backed Pope Paul VI's ban on birth control, but said married couples who find it impossible to follow will not be excluded from communion and other church sacraments.

A key sentence in one version of the proposed pastoral letter reads:

"Conscientious Catholic couples, when overwhelmed by . . . pressures, will not be discouraged if they have resorted to artificial contraception or otherwise fallen into sin; nor should they fail to take full advantage of the strength that comes from the sacraments . . ."

Another version said that married couples "should never be complacent" if they resorted to artificial birth control but would still be open to the church's sacraments.

The Pope's encyclical continuing the church's long ban against contraceptives stirred world-wide controversy. French bishops voted last week to leave the questions to personal conscience.

Without Return To Stalinism

Czech Group Sifts Dubcek Call Of Stronger Red Rule

PRAGUE (AP) — The members of the Czechoslovak Communist party's central committee today debated party chief Alexander Dubcek's call for stronger Communist rule without a return to the harsh Stalinism that prevailed before party liberals ousted Antonin Novotny.

Dubcek's speech was given Thursday to the committee meeting in Prague Castle.

The 47-year-old party leader said there had been excesses in the post-January policy, including tendencies to "underestimate the danger of anti-Socialist forces and influences of the international class struggle."

Dubcek did criticize old-guard Communists who "Seek. . . a return to methods which in their consequences might lead the party back to the 1950s."

He also defended pro-Soviet party leaders, saying: "We do not regard as correct that there should continue to exist emotion and psychosis around the activity of some members of the presidium during the August events."

British Pound Hits Lowest In 10 Months

LONDON (AP) — The British pound plunged to its lowest level in 10 months today and the Bank of England rushed into the market to stop the fall.

The pound opened weak at $2.3850, well below Thursday night's closing $2.3862. It fell to $2.3830, the lowest since January, when it reached $2.3825.

Then it rose suddenly to $2.3835, indicating the Bank of England was buying pounds to shore up the price.

Financial sources said the main reasons for the drop were Britain's bad trade figures for October and persistent rumors that the French franc is to be devalued and the German mark revalued.

The price of gold jumped 10 cents from Thursday night, rising to $40 an ounce on the free market.

Rainy Weather Due Tonight And Saturday

Rainy weather is due tonight and Saturday, with not much change in temperature.

Tonight's low is expected to be in the mid 40s.

Temperatures will average above normal through Wednesday, with highs in the 50s and lows in the 30s.

Cool weather is forecast over the weekend, but it will be a little warmer early next week, then cooler again about mid week.

Precipitation will average about one - half inch, with showers over the weekend and showers or snow flurries early next week.

Zoo Gets Surprise

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland zoo got a surprise addition Thursday with the arrival of a 30 pound baby hippopotamus.

Charles Voracek, the zoo's public service director, said nobody knew the baby hippo's mother, Big Red, was pregnant.

"Big Red seemed a little bit irritated." Voracek said. "But that is quite normal for her."

Man Waives Hearing In Store Entry

An East Palestine man charged with a burglary was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Thursday by County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine.

Two youths cited for malicious destruction were fined and hearings were set for four other county residents accused of various charges.

Wayne M. Defenbach of E. Main St., East Palestine, waived preliminary hearing on a charge of entering the Morris Store Nov. 7. His bond was continued at $5,000.

Thomas A. Pyatt of Salem RD 4 and Robert Stryffler of Beloit RD, cited for throwing stones at homes along Route 164 north of Lisbon in October, were placed on three years probation and fined $500 and costs, with $300 of the fines suspended.

Clarence Swogger of 249 E. Main St., East Palestine, pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny filed by Frank Stratton of Negley RD 1. He was released on his own recognizance for a hearing Dec. 2.

Stratton said the defendant took two truck radiators, a set of wrenches, an anvil and other items valued at $125 from a shed at his home.

Rodney Evans of East Liverpool RD, cited for knowingly receiving stolen goods, pleaded not guilty. His hearing was set for Nov. 25 and bond continued at $500.

Betty Means Taylor of East Liverpool RD, cited on a similar charge, asked for reduction of bond from $3,000 to $1,000, which was granted. Her hearing was set for Nov. 19.

Robert Means of East Liverpool RD, held for entering an unfinhabited house, requested time to retain private counsel and his court-appointed lawyer asked to be withdrawn from the case. This was granted and his hearing set for Nov. 18.

Progress In One Area

Now that the U.S. Supreme Court has ruled Arkansas' anti-evolution law unconstitutional, only Mississippi has a valid statute against teaching Charles Darwin's theory that man descended from apes.

It is just a matter of time before the Mississippi law goes by the boards.

The high court's declaration is in itself a relatively insignificant incident, since a precedent had already been set, but it does open the door for reflection upon the changing attitude of society.

The court based its decision on the logic that state does not have the right to tailor school curriculum to suit any particular religion or dogma.

The position is unassailable.

Yet, in 1927 the U.S. Supreme Court upheld a Tennessee anti-evolution law. The mood of the country was represented in that decision.

Belief in God is as strong today as it was 41 years ago. But man's concept of God has broadened to a point where laws against Darwin's theory are unnecessary.

Diplomatic Fact Of Life

International diplomacy is a devious business at best.

And, as it is practiced, diplomacy seems to trifle with consistency.

This is pointed up in the seemingly inconsistent way in which the United States recognizes new regimes which come to power through force of arms.

Recognition of the military junta in Panama is expected this week after a delay of approximately five weeks.

By contrast, the United States recognized the military junta which seized control of Peru after only three weeks.

Yet, after 19 years, our government withholds recognition of Communist China.

In commenting on the anticipated recognition of Panama, one U.S. official explained: "It's basically a recognition of the facts of life."

After 19 years, it would seem that Red China is pretty much a fact of life.

Making this point does not mean to favor recognition of Red China.

It does serve to show that consistency is not distinguished by being a part of foreign policy decisions when it comes to the recognition of nations, and that the "facts of life" are, at times, treated as if they, indeed, were not facts.

Tom Malone

Area residents with an interest in the early history of Columbiana County were saddened this week by news of the death of Thomas J. Malone, retired Homeworth area steelworker.

Tom Malone, 75, had an unflagging enthusiasm about covered bridges and about the colorful pioneer businessman of this area, John Bever, an Irishman who came to America in 1788 and was a surveyor in eastern Ohio in the early 1800's. Bever and two others founded the first paper mill in Ohio in 1806 and also constructed the first toll bridge, both on Beaver Creek.

Tom had done extensive research for a book on Bever, traveling to Columbus, Washington and elsewhere to garner new information about him. Copies of his book, "John Bever," are on file at Alliance and other locations.

Tom added not only a lot to the knowledge of our district's history, but was a gentleman whose warm personality won him many friends.

Surprising Safety

A psychologist at the University of California made a statement the other day which could have widespread ramifications.

Dr. Frederick McGuire, who was presented the National Safety Council's 1968 award of honor for significant research in accident preventions, declared:

"There is not one shred of acceptable evidence that indicates high school driver education reduces highway accidents or lessens the seriousness of ones that occur."

Dr. McGuire make a sweeping statement when he says "not one" shred of evidence exists. It is hard to believe that confidence in the value of the driver courses would become so widespread if there were not some facts to support it.

Insurance companies have even granted reductions in their automobile rates to drivers who can show that they have completed driver-training courts in high school.

If Dr. McGuire is correct, resulting changes in these rates and in other facets of driver training could be extensive.

We may expect, however, to hear a quick rebuttal to his announcement.

League Commended

I am a parent with two children who had the opportunity to participate in the Little League football program as set up and arranged by the Bill Booth League.

It was the first year for this league, but because of the forethought, programing and scheduling, it excelled all expectation in success. The men who were responsible for this are due great praise, and I for one would like to express my thanks to them.

In the first year they were responsible for procuring four football fields, setting up a seven-game schedule plus play-offs.

Naturally, as a new organization will, there may have been a few mistakes, but the success outweighed them. For the many hours hard labor and precious time they gave to the children of our city, I think all of the officers, coaches, and commissioners of Bill Booth Little League are to be congratulated.

Gloating Republican

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The next few weeks are going to be very tough for those people who were rooting for Vice President Humphrey to win the election. After gloating at the Republicans for eight years, the Democrats are getting some of their own medicine back and it's not easy for the Dems to accept the loss with good grace.

Art Buchwald

The only Democrat I know who has been able to handle it is my friend Rumpelmeyer. I bumped into him at lunch the other day and he said, "Sharkey's joining me in a few minutes and he's going to be impossible over the Nixon win. He specifically invited me to lunch so I would eat crow."

"Why did you accept?"

"I THOUGHT I'D HAVE some fun. Hang around and see what happens."

I took a seat and a few minutes later Sharkey came in bubbling and bouncing, hardly able to contain himself.

"Well, Rump," he said after he ordered a drink. "What did you think of the elections?"

"Who won?" Rumpelmeyer said. "I've been out of town for a week and haven't seen a paper."

Sharkey flushed. "Don't give me that, Rumpelmeyer. You know damn well who won."

"No, I really don't, Sharkey. The last I heard was that Agnew called the New York Times a fat Jap."

Sharkey waved his finger. "You're not going to trick me with that innocent routine, Rump. I've waited eight years for this moment."

RUMPLEMEYER SAID, "Good heavens, Sharkey. You're not going to tell me Nixon won the election?"

Sharkey yelled, "You're darn tootin' he won and you're eating your heart out."

Rumpelmeyer turned to me. "Is it true?"

"I'm afraid it is," I said. "Everyone's conceded it but Mayor Daley."

"Well," said Rumpelmeyer, "this calls for a celebration."

"I'll do the celebrating," Sharkey yelled. "I rooted for him. You didn't."

"I think that's rather selfish of you, Sharkey. After all, Nixon is my president, too. I believe we should drink to him."

Sharkey was getting so mad he gripped the table. "Don't patronize me, Rump. I didn't come here to listen to you toast Nixon."

"But Sharkey," Rumpelmeyer said, "I don't know why you should be so upset about me wanting to toast Nixon. After all, it's only a presidential election, and if you've seen one president, you've seen them all."

"Yes, Rumpelmeyer," Sharkey said, gritting his teeth. "But the difference is that my man won and your man lost, and that means your people are out and my people are in."

"So it does," Rumpelmeyer said. "I'll drink to that."

"You won't drink to it" Sharkey said. "I'll drink to it!"

"I don't know what's gotten into you Sharkey. I'm sure Nixon's happier about all this than you are."

"What do you know about Nixon?" Sharkey cried. "I voted for him."

"Everyone knows about Nixon," Rumpelmeyer said. "He'll probably make a fine president."

I thought Sharkey was going to hit him. "Rump, we may not have agreed politically with each other in the past, and we may have had our differences on the future of this country, but I never thought you'd stoop so low as to steal my one moment of triumph, after I waited eight miserable, lonely years."

"YOU'RE RIGHT, SHARKEY. This is your moment, so let me buy you a drink."

Sharkey rose from the table and screamed, "I'll buy my own drinks. Can't you get it through your head? I won!"

He wheeled around and walked out of the restaurant, leaving his coat behind.

Rumpelmeyer shrugged his shoulders and said to me: "The Nixon people are certainly taking their win awfully hard."

Labor's Political Machine

NEW YORK —Ted Kennedy and his tome carriers sat this one out and that's exactly where the labor leaders now want the man from Massachusetts — out, far out.

Victor Riesel

They're saying that Sen. Edward Kennedy need not worry about stooping to pick up the party's pieces — even if Humphrey is dumped. First, they just don't believe the vice president will lose. Second, they will see to it that the Democratic Party machine keeps rolling along without Kennedy's camarilla.

If the "Party" wins, Ted Kennedy can have the ambassadorship to the Maldive Islands any time he wishes.

If the party loses, it can operate on the power structure the labor movement put together in just one month. If the union chiefs hadn't whipped up a political organization — despite the bludgeoning from Senators Kennedy and McCarthy — there would have been no Humphrey campaign.

With balloting only hours away, few realize just how much of the Democratic Party actually is the labor movement.

THERE IS, FOR EXAMPLE, the magic touch of the traditional rag jungle mass meeting. There were predictions in this campaign that Ladies' Garment Workers leader Louis Stulberg could not fill Siegel's restaurant for the candidate.

Yet eight years (less one day) after the electrifying Jack Kennedy stood on the heart of the needle trades market, Mr. Humphrey drew a bigger crowd of nationalities, races, colors, creeds and passing citizenry than did the tragic man of Camelot. I covered both.

Never before did such a mass of humanity stretch from famed 42nd Street to the 34th Street shopping lane.

Some 250,000 workers cheered, whistled, stomped and sang for Mr. Humphrey. It was an old-fashioned noontime rally, replete with glamor — Carol Channing, Billie Daniels, Alan King, Shelley Winters, Robert Merrill and Cab Calloway. Just such a rally was the catalyst for John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

And a few days earlier, it was President Johnson himself who admitted that he began slugging Dick Nixon because the garment union chief needled him into it.

At a party last Sunday, Oct. 27, in the home of a movie producer, Lyndon Johnson told the gay group:

"Louis Stulberg made a politician out of me again. I'm going ahead, I'm going to give them hell."

And he did.

But the men of labor do more than chuckle or count on sock-it-to-'em slogans. Regardless of what the latter-day John Galbraith writes, the men of labor are as resourceful as vast resources permit, as imaginative as they are powerful when they hit the political highways, and they are as ubiquitous as they are anonymous when they swing into political action.

AT MY LAST COUNT, the movement had over 250,000 specialists in the precincts for their man "Hubert." Nothing Dick Nixon, John Mitchell, or Ray Bliss could weld could match this machine.

As the final weekend rolled over the stomped-on hustings, the AFL-CIO had, with just 21 states reporting, well over 350 banks of telephone callers operating. These were manned (womened, too) by more than 10,000 experts, trained in flashing political appeals.

Already, far more than 50,000 house-to-house volunteers were in the field. And an additional 40,000 had signed up for Election Day bring-out-the-vote chores such as baby-sitting, chauffeuring, and doorbell ringing.

These 21 states do not include such labor power centers as New York and Illinois.

No one can estimate what will hit California, where labor now claims some two million members. It is known that Tom Pitts, leader of the California Labor Council on Political Education told "all trade unionists to drop everything in order to concentrate on a massive get-out-the-vote effort in behalf of the Humphrey-Muskie ticket."

LABOR LEADERS WERE certain they'd take New York, Illinois, Ohio, Texas and some were willing to put money on California. Emil Mazey, second in command of the United Auto Workers who has a passion for realism, told me, during my national survey, "we're positively going to take Michigan."

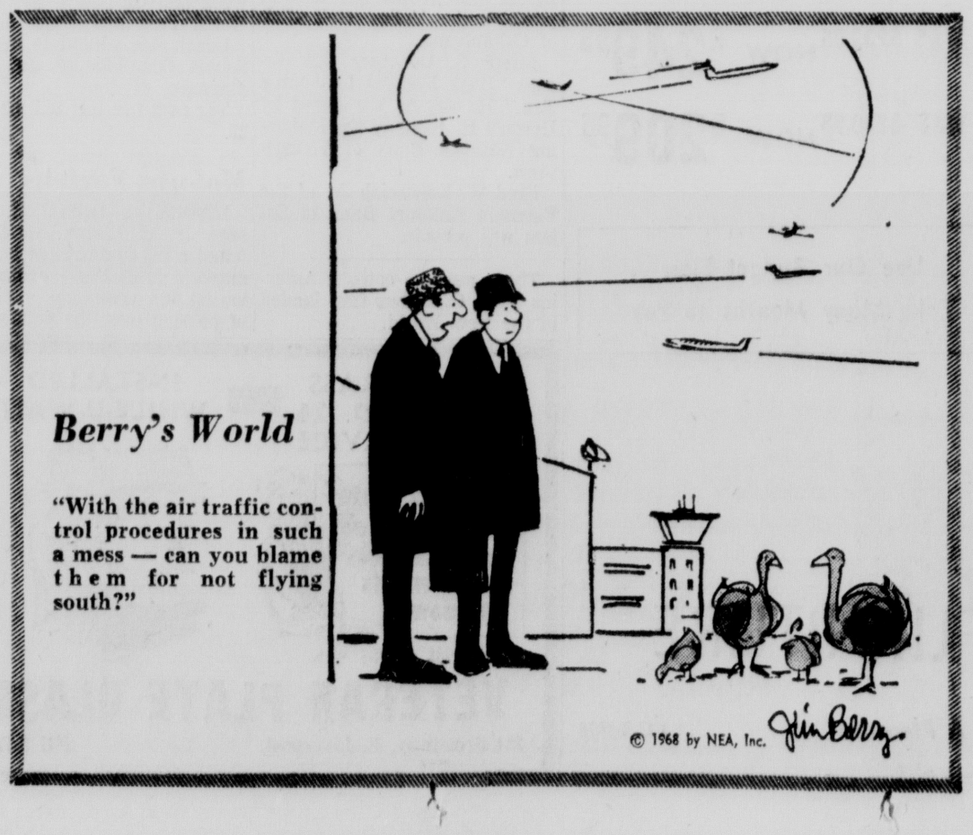

Mazey, like hundreds of other UAW officials, has been speaking anywhere from two to five times a day. He has concentrated on such unnoticed groups of voters as the union's 200,000 retirees. He himself has spoken to 9,000 in the past few days.

Thus it's gone. Except for a city or two such as Chicago, there's been no Democratic Party. McCarthy and Kennedy saw to that. State, county, municipal and precinct leaders came to labor headquarters for everything from buttons to bumper stickers and plant gate literature.

Now there is a machine, win or lose. No doubt a cost accounting analysis will some day show that upward of $50 million was spent on it by labor. Paul Hall's Seafarers poured out a million all by itself.

Certainly the boys aren't going to give this heavily oiled political machine over to Ted Kennedy as a Christmas gift.

These labor men are tough. They like men to stand up and be counted — in, not out.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Cabinet Jobs

President-elect Nixon is thinking a lot these days about whom to appoint to his cabinet. But the persons who are trying to do his thinking for him are legion. There would have to be several times the number of cabinet posts to satisfy the demand.

It is not unusual for the close friends of a president-elect to be approached with the idea of influencing the selection of cabinet officers and the filling of other posts in the government which will become vacant when the Johnson administration ends its tenure Jan. 20.

Basically, the pressure is coming from individuals who have played a part in the campaign. These include men who actively organized support for the presidential nominee in various states throughout the country and those who contributed sums of money to meet the heavy expenses of paid political broadcasts over television and radio as well as in the advertising pages of the press.

PERSONS WHO ARE TALENTED and well qualified for high office do not as a rule like to seek appointment themselves. They prefer that friends and close acquaintances make recommendations to influential groups of advisers in different states who are expected to be intimately identified with the Nixon administration.

But the president-elect cannot just reward individuals who have helped him in his campaign. He has to consider carefully also the requests of Republican members of the Senate and House on whom he will be dependent for co-operation in the legislative programs he presents in the next four years.

Then there is the problem of experience. Too many people think that almost anybody who has been a successful lawyer or businessman can be given any cabinet post and do a good job. Unfamiliarity with governmental operations, however, can be a serious handicap.

Every president-elect unquestionably gives consideration to political obligations. Gov. Rockefeller of New York and Gov. Romney of Michigan, for example, are being mentioned for cabinet posts because of their warm support of Nixon in the campaign.

It is not unusual for a new president also to consider what his political problems might be four years later when he is up for re-election.

It will be recalled that William Jennings Bryan, who was three times the unsuccessful nominee of the Democratic party for the presidency, was the key man in helping Woodrow Wilson to get the nomination at the Democratic national convention in 1912. Bryan became secretary of state in the Wilson Cabinet.

He was not really qualified for the post and resigned after two years due to a disagreement with the president on foreign policy. He was a "dove" and Wilson felt there were times in the prewar period when he had to take a firm attitude toward Germany.

President-elect Nixon has only two months in which to choose his cabinet and lots of names are being heard around Washington as possible appointees. The chances are he will not be impetuous about making his selections but will reach his decisions after much deliberation.

Some of those individuals who have substantial backing but who do not get a cabinet post may be deeply disappointed. It is always possible, however, for a president to bestow honors in some other direction — possibly in the picking of ambassadors or the appointment of some of his friends to serve on commissions and task forces which will deal with subjects that come into the limelight.

THEN THERE ARE always the state dinners at the White House to which campaign contributors and their wives are invited.

The life of a president-elect in dealing with the ambitions and desires of many of his supporters to see their friends appointed to government posts is certainly not an enviable one. When a new president takes office, he must depend upon qualified personnel, and this requirement doesn't always fit in with the political factors involved.

So it may be anticipated that the Nixon supporters who will be disappointed will probably outnumber those whose requests will have been granted. It has happened before in similar periods and probably will happen again.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Miss Mary Lou Banfield of Chester was named a secretary in the office of the Hancock County Board of Education.

The N. S. Club was organized at the home of Miss Alberta Poynter of Pennsylvania Ave., with Miss Sara Davis named president.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Carl Householder was named first president of Salineville's newly-formed Sportsmen's Club. Other officers were Fred Johnson, vice president, and Harry Potts secretary - treasurer.

Lt. John L. Russell was elected president of the East Liverpool Fraternal Order of Police Lodge.

TEN YEARS AGO — Larry Shepherd of Newell was promoted to seaman third class aboard the missile cruiser Galveston at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Merle Starr was elected president of Amona Class of the First Baptist Church.

Progress In One Area

Now that the U.S. Supreme Court has ruled Arkansas' anti-evolution law unconstitutional, only Mississippi has a valid statute against teaching Charles Darwin's theory that man descended from apes.

It is just a matter of time before the Mississippi law goes by the boards.

The high court's declaration is in itself a relatively insignificant incident, since a precedent had already been set, but it does open the door for reflection upon the changing attitude of society.

The court based its decision on the logic that state does not have the right to tailor school curriculum to suit any particular religion or dogma.

The position is unassailable.

Yet, in 1927 the U.S. Supreme Court upheld a Tennessee anti-evolution law. The mood of the country was represented in that decision.

Belief in God is as strong today as it was 41 years ago. But man's concept of God has broadened to a point where laws against Darwin's theory are unnecessary.

Diplomatic Fact Of Life

International diplomacy is a devious business at best.

And, as it is practiced, diplomacy seems to trifle with consistency.

This is pointed up in the seemingly inconsistent way in which the United States recognizes new regimes which come to power through force of arms.

Recognition of the military junta in Panama is expected this week after a delay of approximately five weeks.

By contrast, the United States recognized the military junta which seized control of Peru after only three weeks.

Yet, after 19 years, our government withholds recognition of Communist China.

In commenting on the anticipated recognition of Panama, one U.S. official explained: "It's basically a recognition of the facts of life."

After 19 years, it would seem that Red China is pretty much a fact of life.

Making this point does not mean to favor recognition of Red China.

It does serve to show that consistency is not distinguished by being a part of foreign policy decisions when it comes to the recognition of nations, and that the "facts of life" are, at times, treated as if they, indeed, were not facts.

Motorist Cited In 3-Car Wreck

An Irondale area woman was examined at City Hospital and released following a three-car accident on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. about a mile east of Wellsville Thursday afternoon.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Gloria J. Striker, 19, of Irondale RD 1, driving east in a 1961 sedan, attempted to pass a 1968 sedan operated by Glenn B. Wyrie, 50, of New Castle, Pa. her car struck the Wyrie auto.

Mrs. Striker then lost control and her car jumped the medial strip and struck a westbound 1966 sedan operated by William A. Means, 30, of 1170 Mick Rd., Wellsville, forcing the Means auto off the west side of the road into an embankment.

Mrs. Striker was cited for reckless operation and for driving without an operator's license.

Post Office

coln Ave., a cross street. Sharp enough to threaten a mountain goat with vertigo even in dry weather, it could become a veritable ski slope after a snowfall. Grant appears a little wider than E. 9th or E. 8th, but that seeming advantage is more than offset by the grade.

E. 9th offers a comparatively easy grade from Dresden Ave. to Lincoln Ave., but it is narrow and the pavement is rough. The driver then must negotiate a little jog across Lincoln Ave. into Burton Alley, which connects with St. Clair Ave.

E. 8TH ST. ties together Dresden Ave. and Lincoln Ave., where it ends in a "T" intersection. A driver seeking to get to the Post Office from St. Clair would need to turn off the main thoroughfare at Grant St. or E. 9th St., then drive south on Lincoln to E. 8th.

There's another hazard in using one of the side streets as a shortcut to Dresden Ave. A driver who slows on the steep St. Clair grade to make a right turn may have his car rammed from the rear by an inattentive fellow. Neither of the turns at Grant St. or Burton Alley can be negotiated at anything like normal speeds.

The problems will all be reversed for the Post Office patrons who insist on following another East Liverpool tradition — dropping off the outgoing mail as the last act of the business day, and then driving home. It requires real skill and daring to pull an auto off Grant St. or Burton Alley onto busy St. Clair Ave. at the height of the 5 o'clock rush.

No one has proposed a solution to the threatening traffic problems. Establishment of one-way traffic — in opposite directions on two parallel streets —might help cut congestion in some respects. But in icy weather a rule which says a motorist can drive only upgrade on a certain hillside street is more of a wry joke than a helpful law.

TRAFFIC ENGINEERS perhaps would suggest widening one or all of the access streets. But most of the homes sit so close to the sidewalks that widening would infringe too closely on the properties. In addition, the cost of buying the needed property, even through condemnation proceedings, would strap the city treasury for years.

There's a fourth alternative route, of course, for travel between St. Clair and Dresden without a wide detour. That's the path from the foot of the St. Clair Ave. grade via Lincoln Ave. and Smith St. to Dresden Ave.

But motorists have a way of essaying what appears to be the shortest route. In addition, a driver who traveled to the Post Office via Smith St. and Dresden Ave. would have the problem of turning his auto around or making a circuitous drive around the one - way street system to get into the central business district.

Motorists in the West End-Pleasant Heights area will have no serious problems in driving to the new Post Office location. Both Webber Way and W. 9th St. offer direct connections between those parts of the city and outer Dresden Ave.

PATRONS HEADED to the Post Office from East End also will face no serious problems, what with a straight shot along E. 5th St. to the Diamond and then to Dresden Ave.

Because the new Post Office is so far from the east end of the downtown area, many business places and professional offices may switch their systems of mail pickup, now frequently accomplished by a fleet-footed secretary who can dash from E. 5th and Washington Sts. to the Post Office and back in five minutes, with time out for a soft drink.

But the business patrons on the western fringes of the business district will find the new Post Office site a real convenience.

District Man Fined $5 On Language Charges

Ray Shields of Substation was fined $5 and costs Thursday in Municipal Court when Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp convicted him on a charge of "willfully annoying" Betty Hoyt of Sarah St. "by using obscene language."

Shields pleaded not guilty to the offense, which allegedly occurred Oct. 29. The court also convicted Shields on a charge of threatening assault Oct. 30 on Doris Beaver of Wellsville, but no penalty was assessed.

The court set a hearing Dec. 12 at 9 a. m. for Shileds on a charge of assault and battery on Margery Shields of Substation Rd. on Oct. 29. The defendant previously had pleaded guilty, but received permission to withdraw that plea and enter a plea of not guilty.

A fourth charge was dismissed earlier. It accused Shields of "threatening bodily harm" to the Hoyt woman on Oct. 29.

Laneve, Others Re-Elected By Airport Group

LISBON — Vincent Laneve of East Liverpool, chairman of the Columbiana County Airport Authority since it was appointed in 1965, was re-elected during the annual meeting Thursday night at the Courthouse.

Also renamed were Vaughn McMorrow of Wellsville, vice chairman, and Ed Ward of Lisbon, secretary.

The authority voted to request the county commissioners to ask Mosure - Fok Engineering Co., Ltd., to prepare plans for a 500-foot extension to the 3,500-foot-long runway now under construction at the county airport site — old Swaney Airport in Madison Township.

County commissioners yesterday notified the Federal Aviation Administration of the official closing of Swaney Airport.

Authority members report Roland A. Getz, Inc., of Mansfield has moved a lot of earth since the ground-breaking ceremony Nov. 1.

The authority's next meeting will be Dec. 4.

Plans For Sewer System Near Wellsville Approved

LISBON — County commissioners have received Ohio Department of Health approval of revised detail plans of proposed sanitary sewers and a sewage treatment plant for Skyview Acres subdivision in Yellow Creek Township.

Ralph D. Freshwater of Wintersville is the developer and Howells & Baird Engineering Co., Salem, prepared the detail plans. Skyview Acres in Section 22 along Route 39 about 1.5 miles west of Wellsville.

The commissioners accepted the following conditions the state fixed as conditions of the approval:

That county regulations prohibiting roof and foundation water draining into the sanitary sewers be rigidly enforced; that sanitary sewers and manhole construction conform to standards established by the State Health Department, and that the county shall provide for proper operation of the sewage treatment plant.

Earlier this year, the commissioners reached agreement with Freshwater that the county would take over the treatment plant "one year after it has been in operation and has been approved by the Ohio State Board of Health."

The commissioners Thursday quit-claimed to the City of East Liverpool the county's easement on a 60-by-670-foot strip of land between Armstrong Ln. and Park Blvd.

The land is between the Emmanuel United Presbyterian Church and the Ernest Brooks property on the one side and the Toney Adkins and Alice and Phoebe Crawford properties on the other side. The county obtained the easement for a road while the area was still a part of Liverpool Township. The road never was developed and the city annexed the area many years ago.

Commissioners paid the city $27.50 yesterday for 55 stray dogs destroyed in October.

Change Seen In Warden At Beaver Jail

BEAVER — The Beaver County Prison Board was to have met at noon today and reports in the Courthouse were that Peter Suder, warden at Beaver County Jail, was to be relieved of his duties.

He reportedly will be replaced by Fred J. Norris, Coraopolis police chief and a retired Pennsylvania state policeman.

Norris tendered his resignation to Coraopolis Council Wednesday night, effective Dec. 1, but said today he could not make a statement as to why he was quitting the post.

Suder has been warden about two years. Previously, he was turnkeeper for five and a half years. He replaced Paul Jones as warden. Jones was dismissed following an incident in which a prisoner walked away from the jail.

Since the Prison Board reorganized last Jan. 1, state inspection and other reports have cited unclean conditions and improper security conditions.

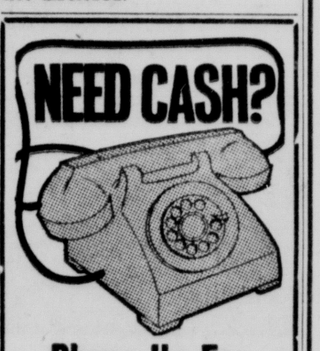

Commissioner George Pettibon, a Republican, is the chairman. He succeeded Commissioner James E. Ross, a Democrat, who served as chairman eight years.

UAW Local To Vote On Goodyear Contract

LOGAN, Ohio (AP)—Some 950 members of Local 744, United Rubber Workers, will vote Saturday on a proposed new contract with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

The union struck the plant here Nov. 2. Reportedly at issue were wages and the union's desire for a two-year contract instead of one for three years. Provisions of the new pact were not disclosed.

Plans For Sewer System Near Wellsville Approved

LISBON — County commissioners have received Ohio Department of Health approval of revised detail plans of proposed sanitary sewers and a sewage treatment plant for Skyview Acres subdivision in Yellow Creek Township.

Ralph D. Freshwater of Wintersville is the developer and Howells & Baird Engineering Co., Salem, prepared the detail plans. Skyview Acres in Section 22 along Route 39 about 1.5 miles west of Wellsville.

The commissioners accepted the following conditions the state fixed as conditions of the approval:

That county regulations prohibiting roof and foundation water draining into the sanitary sewers be rigidly enforced; that sanitary sewers and manhole construction conform to standards established by the State Health Department, and that the county shall provide for proper operation of the sewage treatment plant.

Earlier this year, the commissioners reached agreement with Freshwater that the county would take over the treatment plant "one year after it has been in operation and has been approved by the Ohio State Board of Health."

The commissioners Thursday quit-claimed to the City of East Liverpool the county's easement on a 60-by-670-foot strip of land between Armstrong Ln. and Park Blvd.

The land is between the Emmanuel United Presbyterian Church and the Ernest Brooks property on the one side and the Toney Adkins and Alice and Phoebe Crawford properties on the other side. The county obtained the easement for a road while the area was still a part of Liverpool Township. The road never was developed and the city annexed the area many years ago.

Commissioners paid the city $27.50 yesterday for 55 stray dogs destroyed in October.

Change Seen In Warden At Beaver Jail

BEAVER — The Beaver County Prison Board was to have met at noon today and reports in the Courthouse were that Peter Suder, warden at Beaver County Jail, was to be relieved of his duties.

He reportedly will be replaced by Fred J. Norris, Coraopolis police chief and a retired Pennsylvania state policeman.

Norris tendered his resignation to Coraopolis Council Wednesday night, effective Dec. 1, but said today he could not make a statement as to why he was quitting the post.

Suder has been warden about two years. Previously, he was turnkeeper for five and a half years. He replaced Paul Jones as warden. Jones was dismissed following an incident in which a prisoner walked away from the jail.

Since the Prison Board reorganized last Jan. 1, state inspection and other reports have cited unclean conditions and improper security conditions.

Commissioner George Pettibon, a Republican, is the chairman. He succeeded Commissioner James E. Ross, a Democrat, who served as chairman eight years.

UAW Local To Vote On Goodyear Contract

LOGAN, Ohio (AP)—Some 950 members of Local 744, United Rubber Workers, will vote Saturday on a proposed new contract with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

The union struck the plant here Nov. 2. Reportedly at issue were wages and the union's desire for a two-year contract instead of one for three years. Provisions of the new pact were not disclosed.

coln Ave., a cross street. Sharp enough to threaten a mountain goat with vertigo even in dry weather, it could become a veritable ski slope after a snowfall. Grant appears a little wider than E. 9th or E. 8th, but that seeming advantage is more than offset by the grade.

E. 9th offers a comparatively easy grade from Dresden Ave. to Lincoln Ave., but it is narrow and the pavement is rough. The driver then must negotiate a little jog across Lincoln Ave. into Burton Alley, which connects with St. Clair Ave.

E. 8TH ST. ties together Dresden Ave. and Lincoln Ave., where it ends in a "T" intersection. A driver seeking to get to the Post Office from St. Clair would need to turn off the main thoroughfare at Grant St. or E. 9th St., then drive south on Lincoln to E. 8th.

There's another hazard in using one of the side streets as a shortcut to Dresden Ave. A driver who slows on the steep St. Clair grade to make a right turn may have his car rammed from the rear by an inattentive fellow. Neither of the turns at Grant St. or Burton Alley can be negotiated at anything like normal speeds.

The problems will all be reversed for the Post Office patrons who insist on following another East Liverpool tradition — dropping off the outgoing mail as the last act of the business day, and then driving home. It requires real skill and daring to pull an auto off Grant St. or Burton Alley onto busy St. Clair Ave. at the height of the 5 o'clock rush.

No one has proposed a solution to the threatening traffic problems. Establishment of one-way traffic — in opposite directions on two parallel streets —might help cut congestion in some respects. But in icy weather a rule which says a motorist can drive only upgrade on a certain hillside street is more of a wry joke than a helpful law.

TRAFFIC ENGINEERS perhaps would suggest widening one or all of the access streets. But most of the homes sit so close to the sidewalks that widening would infringe too closely on the properties. In addition, the cost of buying the needed property, even through condemnation proceedings, would strap the city treasury for years.

There's a fourth alternative route, of course, for travel between St. Clair and Dresden without a wide detour. That's the path from the foot of the St. Clair Ave. grade via Lincoln Ave. and Smith St. to Dresden Ave.

But motorists have a way of essaying what appears to be the shortest route. In addition, a driver who traveled to the Post Office via Smith St. and Dresden Ave. would have the problem of turning his auto around or making a circuitous drive around the one - way street system to get into the central business district.

Motorists in the West End-Pleasant Heights area will have no serious problems in driving to the new Post Office location. Both Webber Way and W. 9th St. offer direct connections between those parts of the city and outer Dresden Ave.

PATRONS HEADED to the Post Office from East End also will face no serious problems, what with a straight shot along E. 5th St. to the Diamond and then to Dresden Ave.

Because the new Post Office is so far from the east end of the downtown area, many business places and professional offices may switch their systems of mail pickup, now frequently accomplished by a fleet-footed secretary who can dash from E. 5th and Washington Sts. to the Post Office and back in five minutes, with time out for a soft drink.

But the business patrons on the western fringes of the business district will find the new Post Office site a real convenience.

District Man Fined $5 On Language Charges

Ray Shields of Substation was fined $5 and costs Thursday in Municipal Court when Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp convicted him on a charge of "willfully annoying" Betty Hoyt of Sarah St. "by using obscene language."

Shields pleaded not guilty to the offense, which allegedly occurred Oct. 29. The court also convicted Shields on a charge of threatening assault Oct. 30 on Doris Beaver of Wellsville, but no penalty was assessed.

The court set a hearing Dec. 12 at 9 a. m. for Shileds on a charge of assault and battery on Margery Shields of Substation Rd. on Oct. 29. The defendant previously had pleaded guilty, but received permission to withdraw that plea and enter a plea of not guilty.

A fourth charge was dismissed earlier. It accused Shields of "threatening bodily harm" to the Hoyt woman on Oct. 29.

Laneve, Others Re-Elected By Airport Group

LISBON — Vincent Laneve of East Liverpool, chairman of the Columbiana County Airport Authority since it was appointed in 1965, was re-elected during the annual meeting Thursday night at the Courthouse.

Also renamed were Vaughn McMorrow of Wellsville, vice chairman, and Ed Ward of Lisbon, secretary.

The authority voted to request the county commissioners to ask Mosure - Fok Engineering Co., Ltd., to prepare plans for a 500-foot extension to the 3,500-foot-long runway now under construction at the county airport site — old Swaney Airport in Madison Township.

County commissioners yesterday notified the Federal Aviation Administration of the official closing of Swaney Airport.

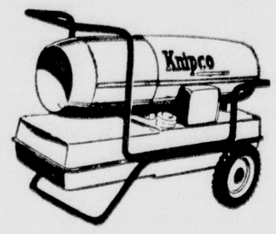

Authority members report Roland A. Getz, Inc., of Mansfield has moved a lot of earth since the ground-breaking ceremony Nov. 1.

The authority's next meeting will be Dec. 4.

Build a better blintz with our sour cream.

Sour cream is just sour cream unless it's from Golden Star. Then you know it's Quality Chekd.

Creamy rich sour cream tops off a sweet, crisp blintz, along with ripe, red raspberries. It's a holiday delicacy you'll serve all year long. But our sour cream doesn't stop there. It tops potatoes, partners with chips and dresses salads. In fact, it serves you constantly from meal to meal, because it's sour cream from the dairy in this area authorized to carry the Quality Chekd symbol.

HOW TO BUILD A BLINTZ!

Pick up a package of Blintz Mix or follow this recipe! Dilute ⅔ oz. of yeast in 1 pint of warm milk and 6 tablespoons of sifted flour. Leave in warm place for two hours. Then add 2 cups sifted flour, 4 egg yolks, 1½ cups of warm milk and a pinch of salt. Mix thoroughly, then add 4 whites of eggs (whipped to a froth) and ½ cup of cream, whipped. Use batter to make thin pancakes, fry in butter, fill with cottage cheese, roll, then top with sour cream.

Build a better blintz with our sour cream.

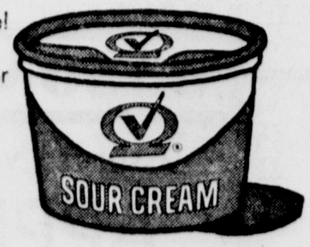

Sour cream is just sour cream unless it's from Golden Star. Then you know it's Quality Chekd.

Creamy rich sour cream tops off a sweet, crisp blintz, along with ripe, red raspberries. It's a holiday delicacy you'll serve all year long. But our sour cream doesn't stop there. It tops potatoes, partners with chips and dresses salads. In fact, it serves you constantly from meal to meal, because it's sour cream from the dairy in this area authorized to carry the Quality Chekd symbol.

HOW TO BUILD A BLINTZ!

Pick up a package of Blintz Mix or follow this recipe! Dilute ⅔ oz. of yeast in 1 pint of warm milk and 6 tablespoons of sifted flour. Leave in warm place for two hours. Then add 2 cups sifted flour, 4 egg yolks, 1½ cups of warm milk and a pinch of salt. Mix thoroughly, then add 4 whites of eggs (whipped to a froth) and ½ cup of cream, whipped. Use batter to make thin pancakes, fry in butter, fill with cottage cheese, roll, then top with sour cream.

Chamber Speaker Airs Issues In State, Nation

The role of the Chamber of Commerce in community progress and some of the state and national issues involving Chamber members were discussed by Paul Daugherty, Ohio Chamber executive vice president, at the fall membership dinner of the Area Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.

Some 180 attended the session at the Country Club at which Daugherty discussed "Here's Where We Stand."

He was introduced by George A. Shaw, president, who reported on activities of the local Chamber during the past year.

Daugherty cited accomplishments from voluntary cooperation of civic groups in "making better ways to better things" in a free society.

"These efforts by Chambers, service clubs, youth organizations, women's groups and others are useful and necessary in the American way of life. Such civic work is important and a patriotic duty."

—:—

DAUGHERTY referred to the approaching 75th anniversary of the Ohio Chamber, and described the tremendous growth in the state since the turn of the century. He pointed out there were 7,900 enrolled in college in 1900, compared with 311,000 today. School expenditures across the whole state amounted to $3,367,000 then, $1,521,000,000 now.

The speaker listed various issues which he said Chamber members should be aware of and express their opinions about to state and national legislators.

The narrow margin of balloting in the past presidential election has focused attention on the electoral college and proposals for change, he said.

Should the election method be fully dependent on a "winner-take-all" basis, he stated, there would be a tendency for the high population centers to dominate the vote. He said he believed choosing electors by districts would provide more proportional representation.

The outlook for removal of the federal surtax, he said, will depend on Rep. Wilbur Mills of the House finance committee and whether he believes national expenditures have been cut sufficiently to warrant the move.

—:—

IN OHIO, Daugherty said, attention is on whether to have annual sessions of the General Assembly. He suggested that local attitudes should be transmitted to the legislators.

Revision of the taxation structure also will be studied, with an eye to a possible state income tax or county level income taxes to meet the increasing needs of schools.

A successor for Atty. Gen. William Saxbe, now headed for the U. S. Senate, is under consideration at Columbus, with many aware of the history of the post as a stepping stone to the governor's office, he said.

Daugherty reminded the members of the "one man, one vote" basis on elections and pointed out that by 1970 some reshaping of Congressional, state senate and state house districts will have to be made.

In conclusion, he said the state Chamber represents people who "work for a profit" and declared that although criticism is sometimes leveled that "we are too conservative, we believe that the proper balance of wages, taxes and profit is the way to a healthy economy."

SHAW discussed some of the accomplishments in the community in the past year, pointing to continuing progress on various levels.

He spoke of the new school system opened in September, groundbreaking for the new county airport, transfer of the Kent State University Academic Center into the former high school, awarding of a contract for another segment of Route 11 to the north end of the county, and improvements in the downtown district.

Shaw also described the work of the Community Improvement Corp. in aiding establishment of the new post office, acquiring land for the airport and helping the removal of the Ludlow Valve Division of Patterson Industries from New York to East Liverpool.

He also cited "a new spirit of cooperation among city administrators, Council, the Chamber, the Jaycees, various civic groups and others," saying he "felt confident this insures further progress."

The Rev. Gene Toot of Trinity United Presbyterian Church gave the invocation.

Shaw introduced various officials and guests along with new Chamber board members, H. J. Allison, David Beatty, Joseph Cooper, H. J. English, Dr. Clarence Mayberry, Charles Taylor and Mike Turk.

180 Attend Dinner

Chamber Speaker Airs Issues In State, Nation

The role of the Chamber of Commerce in community progress and some of the state and national issues involving Chamber members were discussed by Paul Daugherty, Ohio Chamber executive vice president, at the fall membership dinner of the Area Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.

Some 180 attended the session at the Country Club at which Daugherty discussed "Here's Where We Stand."

He was introduced by George A. Shaw, president, who reported on activities of the local Chamber during the past year.

Daugherty cited accomplishments from voluntary cooperation of civic groups in "making better ways to better things" in a free society.

"These efforts by Chambers, service clubs, youth organizations, women's groups and others are useful and necessary in the American way of life. Such civic work is important and a patriotic duty."

—:—

DAUGHERTY referred to the approaching 75th anniversary of the Ohio Chamber, and described the tremendous growth in the state since the turn of the century. He pointed out there were 7,900 enrolled in college in 1900, compared with 311,000 today. School expenditures across the whole state amounted to $3,367,000 then, $1,521,000,000 now.

The speaker listed various issues which he said Chamber members should be aware of and express their opinions about to state and national legislators.

The narrow margin of balloting in the past presidential election has focused attention on the electoral college and proposals for change, he said.

Should the election method be fully dependent on a "winner-take-all" basis, he stated, there would be a tendency for the high population centers to dominate the vote. He said he believed choosing electors by districts would provide more proportional representation.

The outlook for removal of the federal surtax, he said, will depend on Rep. Wilbur Mills of the House finance committee and whether he believes national expenditures have been cut sufficiently to warrant the move.

—:—

IN OHIO, Daugherty said, attention is on whether to have annual sessions of the General Assembly. He suggested that local attitudes should be transmitted to the legislators.

Revision of the taxation structure also will be studied, with an eye to a possible state income tax or county level income taxes to meet the increasing needs of schools.

A successor for Atty. Gen. William Saxbe, now headed for the U. S. Senate, is under consideration at Columbus, with many aware of the history of the post as a stepping stone to the governor's office, he said.

Daugherty reminded the members of the "one man, one vote" basis on elections and pointed out that by 1970 some reshaping of Congressional, state senate and state house districts will have to be made.

In conclusion, he said the state Chamber represents people who "work for a profit" and declared that although criticism is sometimes leveled that "we are too conservative, we believe that the proper balance of wages, taxes and profit is the way to a healthy economy."

SHAW discussed some of the accomplishments in the community in the past year, pointing to continuing progress on various levels.

He spoke of the new school system opened in September, groundbreaking for the new county airport, transfer of the Kent State University Academic Center into the former high school, awarding of a contract for another segment of Route 11 to the north end of the county, and improvements in the downtown district.

Shaw also described the work of the Community Improvement Corp. in aiding establishment of the new post office, acquiring land for the airport and helping the removal of the Ludlow Valve Division of Patterson Industries from New York to East Liverpool.

He also cited "a new spirit of cooperation among city administrators, Council, the Chamber, the Jaycees, various civic groups and others," saying he "felt confident this insures further progress."

The Rev. Gene Toot of Trinity United Presbyterian Church gave the invocation.

Shaw introduced various officials and guests along with new Chamber board members, H. J. Allison, David Beatty, Joseph Cooper, H. J. English, Dr. Clarence Mayberry, Charles Taylor and Mike Turk.

Probably Water Fluoridation, Too

Ohio Legislature Slated To Face Income Tax Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A state income tax and water fluoridation are two controversial issues which probably will come before the 109th Ohio General Assembly when it convenes in January.

Noting Thursday that the legislature will consider revising the state's tax structure, House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess said, "Anytime you start to look at the tax structure, of course you consider an income tax."

However, he said he could not predict if an income tax bill will be introduced.

The Wood County Republican and three other state legislative leaders spoke at a luncheon of the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray R-3 Miami said he expects introduction of a state law requiring fluoridation of water. In all likelihood fluoridation would be a hot topic, since it has been source of controversy in many cities in recent years.

Also appearing on the program were House Minority Leader John C. McDonald D-19 Licking and Senate Minority Leader Frank W. King, D-11 Lucas.

All four leaders agreed that more needs to be done to equalize distribution of state money to school districts and all levels of government.

King said there is "more pressure on the legislature to provide money at all levels of government," and expects that "financing and re-evaluation of all state programs" will be necessary.

He stressed that if new taxes are proposed they should be on a statewide basis.

King noted that Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes is on record against a state income tax.

Kurfess and Gray agreed that some action will be taken in vocational education.

Gray said he expects the legislature to "take off in a new direction as far as public education is concerned," particularly beefing up vocational training in high schools.

Kurfess said there will be proposals to expand vocational education and "a renewed look to alleviate gross inequities of school financing at local levels."

The legislators said other prime topics for the GOP-controlled legislature will include pollution control, urban housing, public employe labor relations and the Ferguson Act, solving the police and firemen's pension fund debts, and revising the election laws with possible consideration of lowering the voting age from 21.

One Of 3 Fleeing Robbery Shot To Death By Officer

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — One of three men fleeing the scene of a robbery here Thursday night was shot to death by a policeman near the Oakwood Shopping Center.

Police Inspector Maurice Mumford said more than $1,000 was recovered from the dead man, not identified immediately.

Mumford said several hundred dollars was still missing in the hold-up at the shopping center's Fisher-Fazio-Costa store. The two other men ecaped.

The dead man was shot by patrolman William Pennington, 31, who had ordered him to stop as he ran across a parking lot. Pennington fired a blast from his shotgun and missed, but the suspect tripped and fell into some weeds.

As Pennington approached, he said, the hold-up man pulled a pistol and said "I'm going to blow your guts out."

Pennington fired again, fatally wounding the gunman.

Man With Chemical Mace Hunted In Theft

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police were searching today for a man, armed with chemical Mace, who robbed a cafe owner of about $2,500 as he returned from a bank Thursday.

Harold Walters, 51, owner of Harold's Bar, told police he was leaving a bank in the Brighton section when a man approached him, sprayed the chemical in his face, grabbed a money sack and struck him.

Bookkeeping Mistake Hinted In Discrepancy

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A reported $42,000 discrepancy in prison industries accounts may be just "an error in bookkeeping," according to Legislative Auditor Encil Bailey.

Bailey said his staff is preparing the audit for the Legislative Interim Committee but that any information on the report must come after the committee gets the audit Tuesday.

He said he had not seen the audit, but added that he understood from staff members who worked on it that the accounting error appears to be in an overstated inventory figure.

This, he said Thursday, could have been done by a prison accountant at Moundsville in an attempt to make business look better than it really was.

Probably Water Fluoridation, Too

Ohio Legislature Slated To Face Income Tax Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A state income tax and water fluoridation are two controversial issues which probably will come before the 109th Ohio General Assembly when it convenes in January.

Noting Thursday that the legislature will consider revising the state's tax structure, House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess said, "Anytime you start to look at the tax structure, of course you consider an income tax."

However, he said he could not predict if an income tax bill will be introduced.

The Wood County Republican and three other state legislative leaders spoke at a luncheon of the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray R-3 Miami said he expects introduction of a state law requiring fluoridation of water. In all likelihood fluoridation would be a hot topic, since it has been source of controversy in many cities in recent years.

Also appearing on the program were House Minority Leader John C. McDonald D-19 Licking and Senate Minority Leader Frank W. King, D-11 Lucas.

All four leaders agreed that more needs to be done to equalize distribution of state money to school districts and all levels of government.

King said there is "more pressure on the legislature to provide money at all levels of government," and expects that "financing and re-evaluation of all state programs" will be necessary.

He stressed that if new taxes are proposed they should be on a statewide basis.

King noted that Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes is on record against a state income tax.

Kurfess and Gray agreed that some action will be taken in vocational education.

Gray said he expects the legislature to "take off in a new direction as far as public education is concerned," particularly beefing up vocational training in high schools.

Kurfess said there will be proposals to expand vocational education and "a renewed look to alleviate gross inequities of school financing at local levels."

The legislators said other prime topics for the GOP-controlled legislature will include pollution control, urban housing, public employe labor relations and the Ferguson Act, solving the police and firemen's pension fund debts, and revising the election laws with possible consideration of lowering the voting age from 21.

One Of 3 Fleeing Robbery Shot To Death By Officer

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — One of three men fleeing the scene of a robbery here Thursday night was shot to death by a policeman near the Oakwood Shopping Center.

Police Inspector Maurice Mumford said more than $1,000 was recovered from the dead man, not identified immediately.

Mumford said several hundred dollars was still missing in the hold-up at the shopping center's Fisher-Fazio-Costa store. The two other men ecaped.

The dead man was shot by patrolman William Pennington, 31, who had ordered him to stop as he ran across a parking lot. Pennington fired a blast from his shotgun and missed, but the suspect tripped and fell into some weeds.

As Pennington approached, he said, the hold-up man pulled a pistol and said "I'm going to blow your guts out."

Pennington fired again, fatally wounding the gunman.

Man With Chemical Mace Hunted In Theft

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police were searching today for a man, armed with chemical Mace, who robbed a cafe owner of about $2,500 as he returned from a bank Thursday.

Harold Walters, 51, owner of Harold's Bar, told police he was leaving a bank in the Brighton section when a man approached him, sprayed the chemical in his face, grabbed a money sack and struck him.

Chester PTA Shown Film

Mrs. Irma Morgan screened a movie on narcotics entitled "Hooked" during the meeting of the Chester Intermediate and Junior High Parent - Teacher Association Thursday night at the school. A question - and - answer period followed.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Jean Whittington, president, Mrs. Margaret Watson reported on the Hancock County Countil PTA meeting at the Chester Primary School in October.

Mrs. Mabel Lowers, chairman of the hospitality committee, reported babysitting services will be available at future meetings.

A rummage sale will be held Feb. 3-8 at the Ewing building in Chester, Mrs. Whittington announced. She also said that a skating party will be held for students Saturday at the Melody Lane Rink near Hookstown.

A proposed budget of $374 was approved for the school term after its presentation by Mrs. Barbara Owen, treasurer.

Thayer Allison, principal of the Primary and Intermediate Schools, announced that Conference Day will be held Tuesday at the schools.

The Dec. 16 meeting will feature a Christmas program, Mrs. Morgan said.

Five men representing different religious faiths will discuss how they celebrate Christmas. Students of the school will present a musical program under the direction of Mrs. Raffaela Harrington.

Mrs. Harrington's sixth grade won the attendance award. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lowers and her committee.

Bookkeeping Mistake Hinted In Discrepancy

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A reported $42,000 discrepancy in prison industries accounts may be just "an error in bookkeeping," according to Legislative Auditor Encil Bailey.

Bailey said his staff is preparing the audit for the Legislative Interim Committee but that any information on the report must come after the committee gets the audit Tuesday.

He said he had not seen the audit, but added that he understood from staff members who worked on it that the accounting error appears to be in an overstated inventory figure.

This, he said Thursday, could have been done by a prison accountant at Moundsville in an attempt to make business look better than it really was.

ANN LANDERS

Don't Ask, Tell Him

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: A couple of months ago my child cut his hand and I had to wait 30 minutes while my husband closed his shop and came home to drive us to the hospital. (There is no bus service out here and a taxi takes forever.)

After that terrible incident my husband promised to teach me to drive. But he made me so nervous (called me dumb and a fraidy cat) that I gave up trying to learn from him

When I announced I was enrolling in driving school he screamed. "No man is going to teach MY wife anything. It would be a reflection on me."

We have two cars and a truck so it isn't that he's afraid I'll deprive him of the car. There are so many things I could do if I could drive. I feel like a rummy staying home while a car sits in the garage. I need advice. — STUCK.

-:-

Dear Stuck: Don't ask His Lordship if you can take driving lessons. Tell him. Explain that the next emergency might be a matter of life and death and you aren't taking any chances.

Non Athlete

Dear Ann: My problem is my brother, although he did not cause it on purpose.

Rusty happens to be a very good athlete He's tops at just about everything you can think of. Rusty has won track medals, tennis cups and played on the baseball and football teams when he was in high school. This fall he enters college on a football scholarship.

I just started high school. Everyone knows me as Rusty's brother. They think just because my brother was a great athlete I should be one, too. Well, I'm not. I haven't got his build and I don't have the interest in it.

I do a lot better with my head than with my muscles. So what's wrong with that? I've always been in the upper 5 per cent of my class and I want to get a science scholarship, not a football scholarship.

Please print my letter. Maybe people will have a better understanding of my problem and leave me alone — especially the coaches. — BRAIN INSTEAD OF BRAWN.

-:-

Dear Brain: Here's your letter and I hope people will have a better understanding of your problem and leave you alone. Especially the coaches.

Gramps Is Hep

Dear Ann: No doubt your readers are getting sick and tired of reading letters about "my husband's mother." Well, this one is going to be different. It's his father I can't stand.

Grandpa's wife died eight months ago and he moved into this apartment building. He has a key to our front door and uses it whenever he feels like it. Last week at 2 a.m. he was prowling around in the kitchen looking for a can of beer. At 6 o'clock this morning he was in our bathroom looking for a razor blade.

Gramps has dinner here regularly, which I don't mind. But I do mind when he picks up tramps in the bars and tries to pass them off as daughters of old friends. Even our 12-year-old is on to him.

I've told my husband I'm fed up but he says he can't ask his dad to stay out of our home. And it's true, as my husband points out, it would be a great inconvenience for us to move as we are close to everything. What do you suggest? — SCREAMING MEEMIES.

-:-

Dear Meem: You're close to everything, all right — including a nervous breakdown. My advice is to move. It could be the beginning of a new set of rules — like no key for Gramps and no uninvited "daughters" for dinner.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

LBJ And Nixon Break Historic New Ground

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Richard M. Nixon are breaking historic new ground with their agreement for advance consultation on any major foreign policy moves before Nixon's Jan. 20 inauguration.

They probably will have to decide as they go along exactly how the arrangement will work.

Nixon's designation of veteran diplomat Robert D. Murphy as his personal representative in the foreign affairs field is expected to make the arrangement smooth and efficient.

Nixon told a news conference Monday, after a meeting with President Johnson, that the present administration can speak in the next two months on foreign affairs with the full authority of the incoming administration.

At a news conference in New York Thursday he said Johnson had agreed to consult him before making any significant moves.

But Nixon also said that for the United States to speak to other countries with a single voice it would be necessary for the President-elect to agree to a course of action.

This seemed to indicate Nixon was reserving the right to withhold his agreement.

The White House was unexpectedly brief in its reaction to the Nixon statement. A spokesman said only the President's power had not been "diluted."

This seemed to indicate the President was reserving the right to take any action he considers necessary.

Commenting on the prospect of disagreement, Nixon said he and Johnson "did not discuss that precisely."

One evident result of the agreement is to increase Johnson's effective power in the conduct of foreign relations during the next two months. Otherwise, he would be limited substantially to committments that he could fulfill in the time remaining to him as president.

Another result which Nixon apparenly hopes for may well be to speed up the Vietnamese peace negotiations as compared with the pace they would probably follow if there was no assumed continuity of U.S. policy.

Nixon made clear in campaign speeches he considered settlement of the war—or at least de-Americanization of the conflict—a priority objective for the next administration.

His emphasis on seeking to rebuild unity in this country and on shifting the focus of foreign affairs from Asia to Europe suggests that if President Johnson does have a chance to conclude a peace settlement in the next two months Nixon will do everything he can to assist.

Nixon is represented as confident that President Johnson will not make a major foreign policy move which he does not approve.

At the White House, Press Secretary George Christian said in response to a direct question that "nothing has diluted presidential authority"—a statement of the constitutional fact that until the moment of Nixon's inauguration the full legal powers of the presidency can be exercised only by Johnson.

Christian reported that Nixon had informed Johnson by telephone in advance that he was designating Murphy to be his representative in the State Department. Christian added that Murphy "of course is well known to this administration."

It's A Laughing Matter

DEAR GALS: We all know that everyone makes mistakes when learning. I remember the time I poured Worcestershire stead of vanilla in some chocolate pies I was making for a party.

Heloise

We can laugh now, but when it happens to us it's NO laughing matter.

Anyway, here's a cute one:

"When I was learning how to bake potatoes, my teacher told me to put a cup of water in the oven with the potatoes to make them steam.

"That sounded strange to me, but when she began to get angry after I asked her three or four times if she really meant it, I obediently poured a cup of water all over the bottom of the hot oven.

"It went up in steam while she just stood there with her jaw sagging open in disbelief.

"Just sign me IDIOT."

We all laughed like crazy each of the FOUR times we read this letter. Isn't it a doozy?

Kiwanians Hear Chinese Speaker

An appeal for aid for the hundreds of thousands of orphans and starving people of Asia was made by Dr. Andrew Gih, Chinese missionary aide, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

Dr. Gih described the plight of the Chinese on the mainland under the Communist regime and on Taiwan, governed by the Nationalist China government.

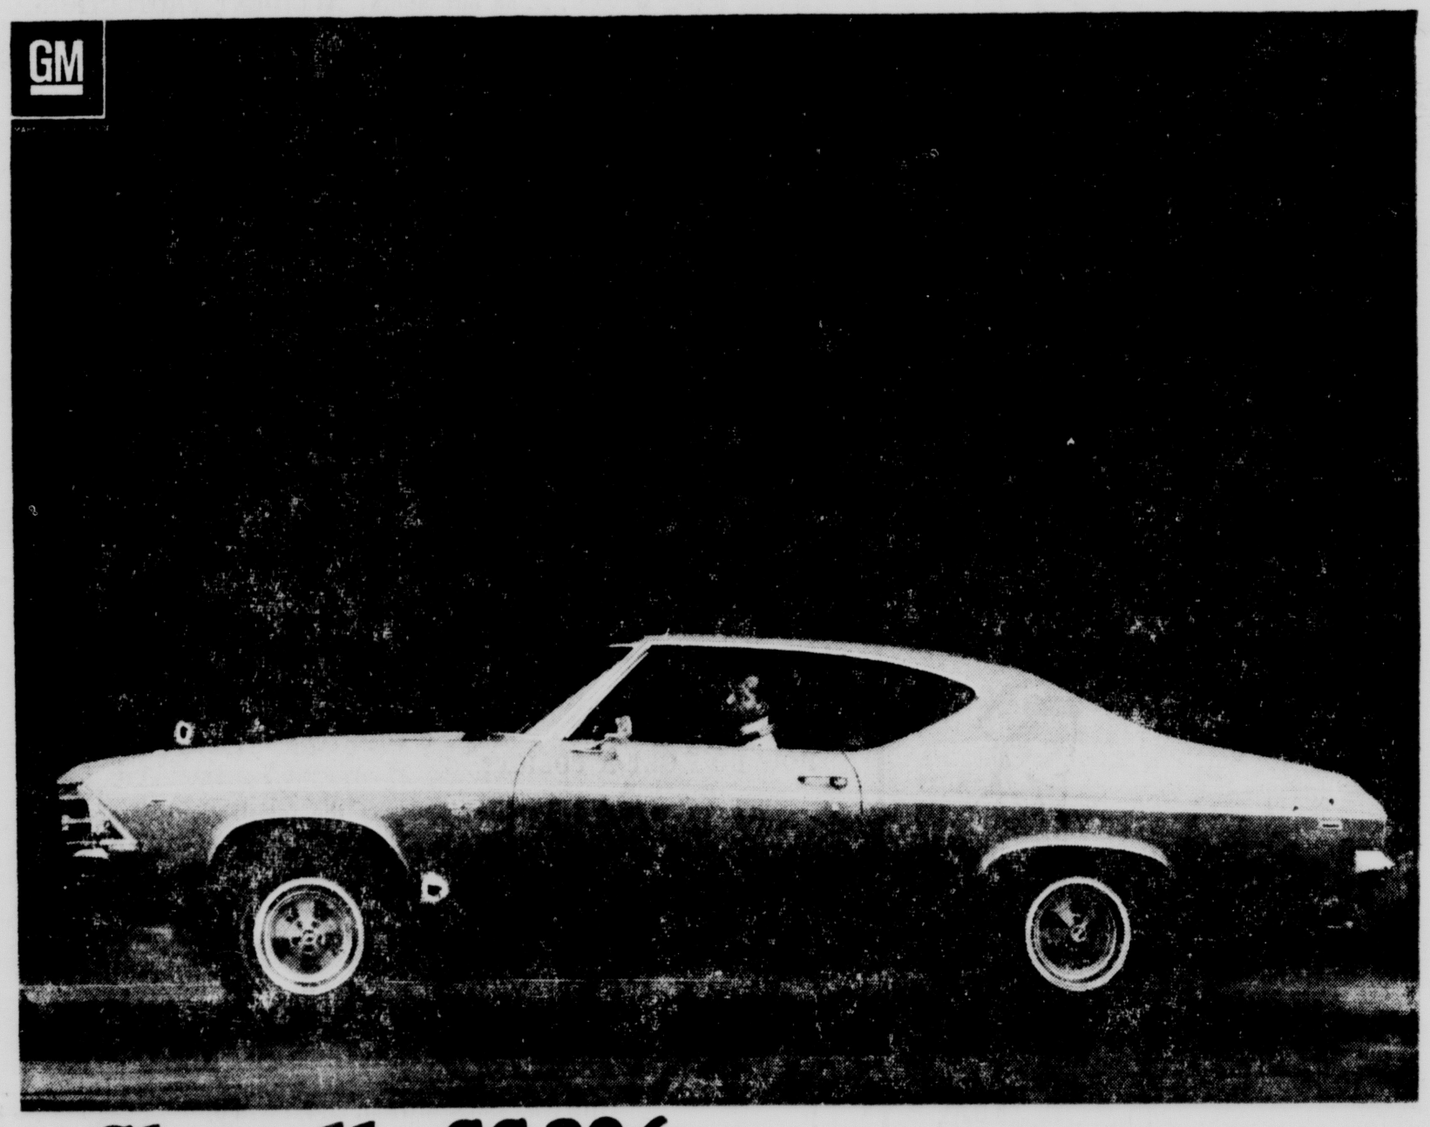

He attributed the success of the Red takeover of the mainland to failure of American leaders such as Gen. George Marshall and President Truman to effectively support a Chiang Kai-chek stand against the Russian - backed Red Chinese.

He said the corruption attributed to the Nationalist side was not as widespread as depicted and pointed out the Chiang forces and citizens were weakened by eight years of fighting before the Allies entered it.

Dr. Gih described some of his organization's, orphanages, schools, churches and other programs. He was introduced by Bill Smith. James Locke was program chairman.

ANN LANDERS

Don't Ask, Tell Him

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: A couple of months ago my child cut his hand and I had to wait 30 minutes while my husband closed his shop and came home to drive us to the hospital. (There is no bus service out here and a taxi takes forever.)

After that terrible incident my husband promised to teach me to drive. But he made me so nervous (called me dumb and a fraidy cat) that I gave up trying to learn from him.

When I announced I was enrolling in driving school he screamed, "No man is going to teach MY wife anything. It would be a reflection on me."

We have two cars and a truck so it isn't that he's afraid I'll deprive him of the car. There are so many things I could do if I could drive. I feel like a rummy staying home while a car sits in the garage. I need advice. — STUCK.

-:-

Dear Stuck: Don't ask His Lordship if you can take driving lessons. Tell him. Explain that the next emergency might be a matter of life and death and you aren't taking any chances.

Non Athlete

Dear Ann: My problem is my brother, although he did not cause it on purpose.

Rusty happens to be a very good athlete He's tops at just about everything you can think of. Rusty has won track medals, tennis cups and played on the baseball and football teams when he was in high school. This fall he enters college on a football scholarship.

I just started high school. Everyone knows me as Rusty's brother. They think just because my brother was a great athlete I should be one, too. Well, I'm not. I haven't got his build and I don't have the interest in it.

I do a lot better with my head than with my muscles. So what's wrong with that? I've always been in the upper 5 per cent of my class and I want to get a science scholarship, not a football scholarship.

Please print my letter. Maybe people will have a better understanding of my problem and leave me alone — especially the coaches. — BRAIN INSTEAD OF BRAWN.

HOW MUCH WOULD YOU HAVE COLLECTED ON A POLICY LIKE THIS LAST YEAR?

Keeps You On Your Toes, Trimble Says

New U.N. Security Chief Right Job's A Challenge

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — When he became U.N. security chief, Lt. Col. Harold A. Trimble thought the job would be a challenge. Five months of dealing with demonstrators, VIPs and a threatened guard strike have convinced him he was right.

'Something different is going on all the time," said the tall, trim Canadian with the bearing of a military career man. "It certainly keeps you on your toes."

Trimble is not only responsible for protecting delegates, visiting dignitaries and everyone else who streams through the 18-acre U.N. complex each day. His 180-man guard force must keep hecklers out of the debating halls and prying individuals from haunting the delegates' lounge or infiltrating 35 floors of offices where the 2,000-member secretariat staff works.

The guards try to intercept troublemakers before they reach the admissions desk, but it is impossible to spot them all. And when a delegation secures a block of seats for visitors to the General Assembly or Security Council, there is no way of checking on them. At least one Communist mission here has been suspected of slipping in organized rioters this way.

When a demonstration does erupt, the security men in the area eject the agitators as quickly and quietly as possible. Nine such demonstrators rose up in the public gallery and denounced the U.S. role in Vietnam when Secretary of State Dean Rusk addressed the assembly in the recent policy debate. Nine others singled out Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's appearance on the assembly stage to break out banners calling for a free Biafra. Both groups were hustled out of the hall as soon as they began their pitch.

"In each case," said Trimble, "the demonstrators came in separately and, to me at least, each looked like a normal visitor. It is virtually impossible to avert such outbursts. You just get rid of them as fast as you can."

If real violence was involved, as in 1961 when a group of demonstrators armed with bicycle chains and other crude weapons broke into the Security Council, the rioters are turned over to the New York police. But usually they are merely escorted to the gate and asked to leave.

Trimble ran into a problem no other U.N. official had faced when more than 100 members of the guard force called in sick on Oct. 22 to dramatize their demands for higher pay. It was the first work stoppage that had ever occurred in the United Nations and the prospect of 39 floors and three basements virtually unguarded caused considerable apprehension.

Trimble took the situation in stride and managed to get through the day without serious incident by deploying the handful of men he had on duty and barring all visitors from the public galleries.

The colonel, who looks younger than his 52 years, was a natural choice for the post vacated last June when John J. Cosgrove retired as security boss.

"I spent three years here as military adviser to the Canadian mission," Trimble said, "and I knew many of the delegates and secretariat officials. As a matter of fact, it was generally known here that I was about to retire and was interested in this kind of work."

Trimble and his wife live in an apartment near U.N. headquarters on the East River. His daughter is married to a pilot in Canada's armed forces, and a son was recently commissioned after graduating from military college there.

The pairings for the Steel Bowl basketball tournament, to be held in the Pittsburgh Civic Arena Dec. 6-7, have been made. Pitt will meet Westminster and Duquesne will play St. John's in the first round.

These are two attractive pairings, as Pitt will be coached by former Westminster coach Buzz Ridl and Westminster will be coached by one of Ridl's former players, Ron Galbreath, who moved up from an assistant's position at Geneva.

Duquesne and St. John's are old rivals. But Duquesne fans are upset about the pairings. The Dukes and St. John's are by far the two best teams in the tournament, at least on paper, and a good tournament should have the top two teams meet in the finals. But this is not the way the Steel Bowl does things.

Several years ago, when Rick Barry played for Miami, the Hurricanes were in the tourney. Duquesne had a fine team, featuring Willie Somerset. Pitt, as usual, had nothing, and the fourth team was Virginia Tech, which had not yet become the national power it was the next season. But Duquesne and Miami met in the opener, with the Hurricanes edging Duquesne. Pitt, with the aid of some very questionable officiating, got by VPI, but of course got slaughtered by Miami in the finals.

This is supposed to be Duquesne's year, despite the pairings, and fans of the Dukes are envisioning beating St. John's and then whipping Pitt in the finals.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Bob Maltarich made a key interception and also made an excellent tackle after failing to be fooled on a reverse as Bowling Green fell 28-27 to Ohio U. last week.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Len Walker played most of the game at offensive tackle for the Marietta Pioneers in their 13-6 win over West Virginia Wesleyan last week. Marietta is on the way to its best football season since 1923.

P. J. NYITRAY, Bowling Green's excellent quarterback, has been lost for the season due to a concussion suffered in the loss to Ohio U. Nyitray holds several BG career marks.

TOMMY RICHARDSON, who has been connected with professional baseball for 46 years, will be one of the featured speakers at the Dapper Dan Club banquet at Steubenville Jan. 19. Richardson was president of the International League for six years and president of the Eastern League for 24 years. He is a former song-and-dance man in vaudeville.

CHRIS MYERS of Kenyon has moved up to third in the nation among small-college pass receivers, only three catches from the top. Kenyon is assured of its first winning football season since 1950 and is aiming for its best year since 1925.

DAN LEAKE, a three-year letterman and the only senior on the Steubenville College basketball team, underwent knee surgery yesterday and will be lost to the team for eight weeks.

BALDWIN-WALLACE'S dream of an unbeaten football season has been spoiled by Akron, but the Yellowjackets are still third national in total offense and rushing offense.

RON (PO) JAMES, New Mexico State's fabulous freshman from New Brighton, is up to third in the country in rushing, trailing only Eugene (Mercury) Morris of Avonworth and West Texas State and O. J. Simpson of Southern California. James outgained Morris when their teams met. James is also eighth nationally in scoring, and his points include a field goal.

ARCHBISHOP CARROLL of Washington, D. C. has not lost a game since it was edged 14-13 by East Liverpool. The Lions are now 7-1-1 and playing tomorrow for the Washington Catholic championship against unbeaten DeMatha Catholic, which whipped Pittsburgh Catholic champ South Hills Catholic 33-0 last week.

Cincinnati Has Lead In NBA East

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — That discounted flock known as the Cincinnati Royals, shepherded by Oscar Robertson, is proving that togetherness goes a long way in ruling the National Basketball Association pasture.

"We've had everybody in the fold since the very beginning," says veteran center Connie Dierking. "We had a good camp. We got the winning feeling and it has carried over."

It has carried the Royals to a fast start in the NBA's Eastern Division, which they maintained Thursday night with a 110-101 victory over the New York Knickerbockers for a 10-3 record.

In the only other NBA game Thursday, Detroit edged Phoenix 111-109 at Tucson, Ariz.

Los Angeles beat the New York Mets 113-104, Oakland topped Dallas 112-106 and Denver trounced Houston 105-89 in the American Basketball Association.

"I think Tom Van Arsdale, John Tresvant, Connie Dierking and more team unity is the big reason for our fast start," says Oscar Robertson, the Royals' perennial All-Star.

Van Arsdale and Tresvant, obtained in a trade with Detroit late last season, scored 12 and 19 points, respectively, Thursday night and Dierking added 17. Tresvant and Dierking also grabbed 10 rebounds each.

"Being together in camp"—there were no holdouts or injuries to delay the Royals from reporting this season—"is a big thing," says Coach Ed Jucker. "And, of course, a healthy Oscar.

Robertson, who missed all or part of 30 games, last season, scored 29 points, handed out six assists, and returned to action late in the game to break a Knick rally by scoring five straight points.

It was another typical Big O performance as was that of another Cincinnati veteran, Jerry Lucas, who scored 21 points and snared 20 rebounds.

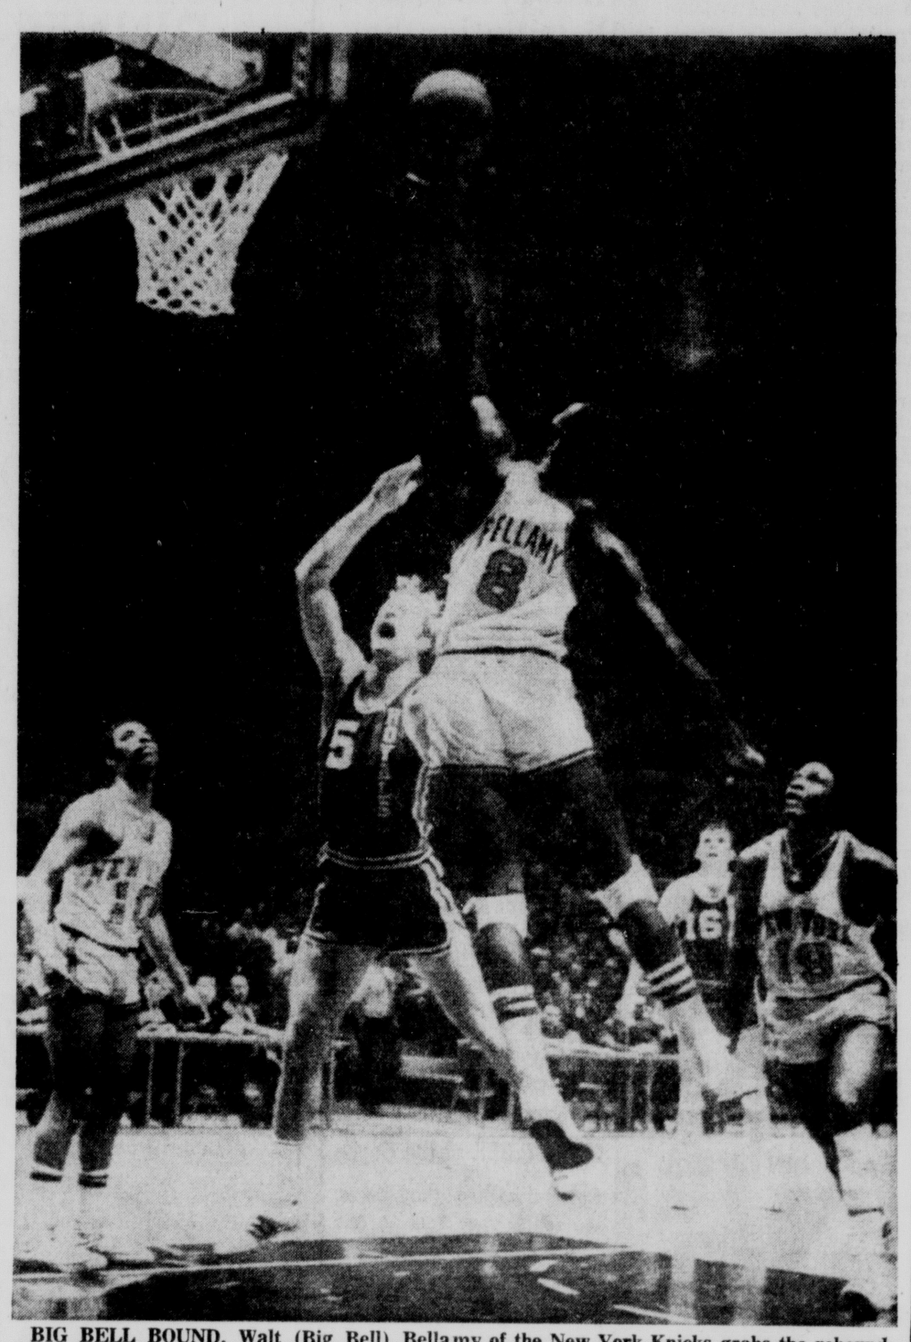

The Knicks, picked as a serious contender in the East but off to a 5-11 start, were so far apart—and off the target—in the second quarter against the Royals that it cost them the game.

New York had numerous turnovers, hit on just six of 26 field goal attempts and went almost 7½ minutes without making a basket as they scored just 17 points in the second quarter and fell behind 54-41 at halftime.

It was too much of a deficit for the Knicks to overcome, although Cazzie Russell went on a 26-point scoring splurge in the second half.

Detroit capitalized from the free throw line in the fourth period and withstood a late Phoenix surge in outlasting the Suns. The Pistons, limited to only four baskets in the last stanza, converted 14 of 18 foul shots while Phoenix hit on just two of seven from the free throw line.

Dave Bing and Happy Hairston shared scoring laurels for Detroit with 23 points apiece while Gail Goodrich topped Phoenix with 25.

BIG BELL BOUND. Walt (Big Bell) Bellamy of the New York Knicks grabs the rebound of a shot by Tom Arsdale (5) of the Cincinnati Royals. Walt Frazier (10) and Willis Reed (19) of the Knicks and Jerry Lucas (16) of the Royals watch. Royals won NBA game in New York last night 110-101. (UPI Telephoto)

Intrepid To Defend Yacht Title In 1970

NEW YORK (AP) — Intrepid, the successful 1967 defender of the America's Cup, will be back as a candidate for the 1970 match, it was revealed Thursday night at the annual awards dinner at the New York Yacht Club.

Bucks Rely On Tough Defense

By PAUL LEBAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Swashbuckling Iowa is second-ranked Ohio State's football host here Saturday, just bold enough to dispute the eight-point underdog status given it.

Hawkeye Coach Ray Nagel, in a mood matching his team's devil-may-care outlook, Thursday concerned himself more with worrisome rain than the problems to be posed by the Buckeyes.

"If it rains during the game, we may have to change our offensive style," Nagel mused.

"We'll have a dry field if it doesn't rain Saturday," he said, however. To insure it, a tarpaulin has been on the thinning Iowa Stadium turf since Sunday.

The Weather Bureau has forecast a diminishing of the rain through Friday, with an end to the wetness to occur in time for Saturday's kickoff.

There's little prospect for sunshine, but Iowa partisans in a crowd expected to top 50,000 are still looking for a bright new day to dawn for their favorites.

To make it happen, the young Hawkeyes—who combine youth and talent with refreshing imagination—must remain on the offensive rampage that has catapulted them to record totals during a 4-4 season.

Although they've been generous to an embarrassing fault on defense, their offense is better than ever before seen in the Big Ten Conference.

Quarterback - turned-tailback Ed Podolak has rushed to a conference - leading 666 yards on only 92 carries and has an arm to establish a double passing threat in tandem with signal-calling Larry Lawrence.

Brawny fullback Tim Sullivan, whom Nagel believes "probably doesn't get all the credit he should," is seventh in Big Ten rushing and wingback Barry Crees has snared 17 passes.

In a renewal to what has often been a bawdy series, Iowa will pit its offensive wizardry — 494.4 yards and 38.4 points a conference game — against the circuit's best resistance.

"I think the strength of Ohio State's defense is their pursuit, their gang tackling and their alertness," Nagel said.

"This is by far the best Ohio State we've played in my three years at Iowa," he emphasized.

Until Iowa's midseason surge, its bid against the undefeated Buckeyes had loomed as a breather for a Woody Hayes team bent on a return to the Rose Bowl.

"We're anxious to play Ohio State," said Nagel, who added impishly: "We even feel we have a chance for victory."

China Leads, U.S. Fourth In World Cup

ROME (AP) — U.S. PGA Champion Julius Boros of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Texan Lee Trevino settled into fourth place after the World Cup's Golf tournament's opening round Thursday.

Boros missed several putts inside six feet for a one-over-par 73. Trevino, of Dallas, blew hot and cold for his three-under 69.

The Americans trailed a pair of pinpoint golf pros from the Nationalist Chinese island of Taiwan—Hsieh Yong-Yo, 34, a slight 130-pounder, and his bamboo-weight partner, Lu Liang-Huan, 32 and 136 pounds, who took the lead at 139.

Close behind the Chinese were the British entry of Bernard Hunt and Neil Coles, who clubbed matching 70s for a 140 total. Italy was third at 141.

Tied with Boros and Trevino for fourth at 142 were Canadians Al Balding and George Knudson. Balding's 68 was low individual score for the day, two off the record of 66 for the 6,850-yard par 72 Olgiata Golf Club course.

Oak Glen Cage Tickets On Sale

Season tickets for Oak Glen basketball are on sale at the school until Dec. 3, athletic director Thomas Salvati has announced.

The Golden Bears will play 11 home games, opening with South Side Beaver on Dec. 3, and the price of a ticket is $16.50.

Jockey Gets Win On 3rd Try

CHARLES TOWN, W.Va. (AP) — Apprentice jockey Glynn Louviere crossed the finish line first in three consecutive races at Charles Town Thursday night before making it to the winner's circle.

Louviere rode Big Ham to an apparent victory in the fifth race but was placed second after an objection by Dallas Hedge aboard Sun Windsor—the declared winner at $9.20.

The same pattern was followed in the sixth race. Louviere and Miss Glad were set down to second, with Random Flyer and Cliff Riston declared the winner at $10.40.

Louviere finally made a victory stick in the seventh, winning with favored Miss Crasher at $6.20.

Pretty Blonde, 25, Gets Jockey License

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Peggy Ann Early, 25, an attractive, petite blonde became an official jockey Thursday when she received a temporary license from the Kentucky State Racing Commission.

The commission's action made Miss Early the second woman to be sanctioned for riding thoroughbreds at a major track in this country. Earlier this year, Cathy Kusner was licensed in Maryland.

South Side Cagers Have No Lettermen

John Nace, in his first year as basketball coach at South Side Beaver high last year, posted acreditable 11-9 record.

Nace anticipates trouble matching that mark this season, as his top six players graduated and no lettermen return. Among the graduates was Ron Peden, who set many school records.

To add to Nace's problems, Coraopolis, one of the toughest Class B schools in the WPIAL, replaced Crafton in Section 17, South Side's league. Despite Coraopolis' glowing past, Nace thinks that Center Twp., the defending champions, will repeat, as the Trojans have almost everybody back.

One thing in the Rams' favor is a schedule that provides for 11 home games and 10 road contests. Last year the Rams were 8-1 on their cozy home court and 3-8 on foreign floors.

Nace has only four seniors on the squad, and they are expected to start. They all played JV ball last season. Tallest is Dan McNary at 6-2, while Jim Searight is 6-0, Doug Williamson 5-11 and Harry McElhaney 5-10. Junior Chuck Gillespie, 6-2, is expected to complete the starting lineup.

Other juniors, who are pushing for starting berths, are Jeff Wilson and John Anderson, both 5-10; 6-2 John Mott and 6-0 Tom Smith. Sophomores on the squad, who have looked good so far, are 6-2 Dan Basinger, 5-11 Bruce Walker and 5-9 Ed Ashcroft.

Nace has no assistant. South Side gets a head start on other area teams by opening Nov. 26 at Sewickley Academy.

The complete schedule:

Nov. 26	at Sewickley Academy
Nov. 29	at Burgettstown
Dec. 3	at Oak Glen
Dec. 6	South Fayette
Dec. 10	Avella
Dec. 14	Fort Cherry, 2:30 p.m.

Thunderbird Classic Golf Dispute Casualty

NEW YORK (AP) — The $150,000 Thunderbird Golf Classic, one of the richest on the tour circuit, is the latest casualty in the war between the Professional Golfers Association and the new American Professional Golfers organization.

Former Ring Champions Box Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Ismael Laguna and Luis Rodriguez, both dreaming of a return to their former status as world boxing champions, hope to move a bit closer tonight in co-featured bouts at Madison Square Garden.

Laguna has made repeated offers to meet the guarantees asked by lightweight king Teo Cruz of the Dominican Republic in hopes of regaining the crown he held for seven months in 1965. His opponent in a 10-round match is Ramon Blanco of Puerto Rico by way of Caracas, Venezuela.

Rodriguez, who held the welter championship for more than a year (1963-64), has moved up to the middleweight division with designs on champion Nino Benvenuti. The Cuban, who now lives in Miami, will be making his 98th pro start against Joe Shaw, New York welter, in another 10-round.

Cleveland Selected Over Steelers 30-17

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Things ran true to form in pro football last week, with the exception of Dallas' upset by New York, but we went down picking upsets with the 49ers and Eagles.

The toughest picks appear to be Minnesota-Detroit and Los Angeles-San Francisco in the National Football League and New York-Oakland in the American Football League. We're going to stick with most of the favorites.

Last week's 9-3-1 made it 69-32-3 for the year (42-20-2 in the NFL and 27-11-1 in the AFL). Let's try again. All games are to be played Sunday.

NFL

Chicago 20, Atlanta 10-Despite loss of Gale Sayers, Bears seem to have too much for Falcons, who have been giving up almost 31 points a game.

Cleveland 30, Pittsburgh 17—Steelers always trouble for Browns but they're in no mood to be stopped now with a grasp on division lead and four-game victor streak. Browns won Oct. 5 game, 31-24.

Dallas 31, Washington 10-Only a rejuvenation of Sonny Jurgensen, who may be able to play without his protective corset, can make this close.

Minnesota 21, Detroit 14-Would like Vikings better if game not in Detroit where Lions play their best. Vikings took first game 24-10.

Los Angeles 17, San Francisco 14—Scared of this one. Los Angeles defense should do it but San Francisco should be ready for all-out effort before home folks. Rams won in Los Angeles 24-10.

Green Bay 21, New Orleans 17—It's shocking to find Packers 3-5-1 at this stage, but they can't be counted out yet. Saints' defense will pressure Bart Starr. Milwaukee site favors Green Bay, especially if the snow is flying.

New York 27, Philadelphia 17—Giants sky high after beating Dallas. Eagles, booed at home and losers of nine straight, in angry mood. Everybody runs on Eagles so why not Giants? Giants won first game 34-25.

Baltimore 31, St. Louis 17-Colts appear to be steaming toward Super Bowl with fine blend of offense and solid defense. Jim Hart may be running for his life from Colt rush.

AFL

Kansas City 27, Boston 14—Pat Holmes emerging as real rookie star and Jan Stenerud still is booting those field goals. Pats without Nick Buoniconti again.

Miami 21, Cincinnati 20—Bob Griese's passing and Jim Kiick's running make up for weak defense that has allowed 29 touchdowns. Paul Robinson's running makes Bengals dangerous. Home field favors Dolphins. Miami won earlier 24-22 when Cincinnati failed on two-point conversion try.

Houston 17, Denver 14—Floyd Little could make things hot for Oilers.

Oakland 24, New York 23—Could be preview of the AFL title game. Last time they met Ben Davidson fractured Joe Namath's cheekbone last December in Oakland. Raiders lead league with 30 touchdowns and Jets are tops in defense.

San Diego 31, Buffalo 14—Unless Chargers spent too much time enjoying the wintry scene at Niagara Falls, they should handle Bills with little trouble.

USC, Oregon State Meet With Rose Bowl At Stake

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

College football's version of the run for the roses comes up Saturday when top-rated Southern California and O. J. Simpson entertain 13th-ranked Oregon State and Bill "Earthquake" Enyart with the winners going to the Rose Bowl.

"Oregon State is a better team than California," says Coach John McKay, whose unbeaten Trojans trimmed the unranked Golden Bears 37-17 last weekend. "They're a veteran team and probably the biggest team in the country."

The nationally televised Simpson-Enyart duel should be something to see. Simpson is second nationally in rushing with 1,211 yards ad 17 touchdowns while Enyart, a line-busting fullback, has 1,038 yards and 13 TDs.

"Enyart doesn't have great speed but he has quick feet," notes McKay. "You've got to tackle him head-on. You can't get him from the side and expect to keep him from getting four or five yards. Maybe he's not a great runner but he's a real good one behind an offensive line that averages something like 245 pounds, and that includes the ends.

"And their quarterback, Steve Preece, is by far the best we've seen in recent years at running the option."

The Beavers are the only team to beat Simpson—3-0 last year—in his two seasons at Southern Cal.

The nation's ranking teams will be involved in a raft of games that will go a long way toward deciding the conference races and the bowl picture.

While Oregon State-Southern Cal will settle the Pacific Eight, there are three key contests in the Big Ten and two each in the Big Eight, Southeastern and Southwest Conferences.

Unbeaten and second-ranked Ohio State visits Iowa, which has developed a explosive offense with Larry Lawrence at quarterback and Ed Podolak at halfback, where he set a one-game Big Ten rushing mark a week ago.

The Buckeyes are tied for the Big Ten lead with fourth-ranked Michigan, and 19th-ranked Indiana is only one game back. Michigan will be at home against winless Wisconsin while Indiana hosts in-and-out Minnesota. The big one is Michigan-Ohio State next weekend.

Missouri, ranked sixth, leads the Big Eight by a game but must tackle rugged Oklahoma on the road. The Sooners, led by Steve Owens, the country's No. 5 runner, toppled previously unbeaten Kansas into second place a week ago. Seveth-ranked Kansas also is on the road at Kansas State.

The key Southeastern games are fifth-ranked Georgia at 12th-ranked Auburn and Mississippi at No. 11 Tennessee. Auburn, on the strength of three straight upsets, leads with a 4-0 record, while Georgia is 4-0-1, Mississippi 3-1 and Tennesee 1-1-1.

The perennial Southwest scramble finds eighth-ranked Texas, 10th-ranked Arkansas, Southern Methodist and Texas Tech at the top with 4-1 records. Texas is at Texas Christian in a night game, Arkansas entertains SMU at Little Rock and Texas Tech visits Baylor.

Penn State, the nation's only unbeaten major independent, takes its third-place ranking and second-rated rushing defense to Maryland. Notre Dame, ranked ninth, faces Georgia Tech at home without Terry Hanratty, lost for the season with a knee injury. Sophomore Joe Theismann takes over.

Television fans are in for a doubleheader. Besides Oregon State-Southern Cal, ABC-TV will air a night game featuring 16th-ranked Alabama and Miami, Fla., in the Orange Bowl.

Area Trapshooters Slate Winter League

The Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association has announced plans for the formation of a winter trapshoot league.

Teams will be formed among club members and will shoot in competition for 20 weeks. Various trophies will be awarded at the end of the season.

Members interested in joining are to contact Harold Lewis, Ray Thompson or Ken Alford.

During a 16 - yard practice shoot Wednesday night, George Hercules hit 25 and Andy Dudick 24.

In the high gun shoots, Gary Tolson won two and Thompson one.

Another shoot will be held Sunday at 1 p.m., with the jackpot shoot at 4.

Simpson Faces Enyart

USC, Oregon State Meet With Rose Bowl At Stake

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

College football's version of the run for the roses comes up Saturday when top-rated Southern California and O. J. Simpson entertain 13th-ranked Oregon State and Bill "Earthquake" Enyart with the winners going to the Rose Bowl.

"Oregon State is a better team than California," says Coach John McKay, whose unbeaten Trojans trimmed the unranked Golden Bears 37-17 last weekend. "They're a veteran team and probably the biggest team in the country."

The nationally televised Simpson-Enyart duel should be something to see. Simpson is second nationally in rushing with 1,211 yards ad 17 touchdowns while Enyart, a line-busting fullback, has 1,038 yards and 13 TDs.

"Enyart doesn't have great speed but he has quick feet," notes McKay. "You've got to tackle him head-on. You can't get him from the side and expect to keep him from getting four or five yards. Maybe he's not a great runner but he's a real good one behind an offensive line that averages something like 245 pounds, and that includes the ends.

"And their quarterback, Steve Preece, is by far the best we've seen in recent years at running the option."

The Beavers are the only team to beat Simpson—3-0 last year—in his two seasons at Southern Cal.

The nation's ranking teams will be involved in a raft of games that will go a long way toward deciding the conference races and the bowl picture.

While Oregon State-Southern Cal will settle the Pacific Eight, there are three key contests in the Big Ten and two each in the Big Eight, Southeastern and Southwest Conferences.

Unbeaten and second-ranked Ohio State visits Iowa, which has developed a explosive offense with Larry Lawrence at quarterback and Ed Podolak at halfback, where he set a one-game Big Ten rushing mark a week ago.

The Buckeyes are tied for the Big Ten lead with fourth-ranked Michigan, and 19th-ranked Indiana is only one game back. Michigan will be at home against winless Wisconsin while Indiana hosts in-and-out Minnesota. The big one is Michigan-Ohio State next weekend.

Missouri, ranked sixth, leads the Big Eight by a game but must tackle rugged Oklahoma on the road. The Sooners, led by Steve Owens, the country's No. 5 runner, toppled previously unbeaten Kansas into second place a week ago. Seveth-ranked Kansas also is on the road at Kansas State.

The key Southeastern games are fifth-ranked Georgia at 12th-ranked Auburn and Mississippi at No. 11 Tennessee. Auburn, on the strength of three straight upsets, leads with a 4-0 record, while Georgia is 4-0-1, Mississippi 3-1 and Tennesee 1-1-1.

The perennial Southwest scramble finds eighth-ranked Texas, 10th-ranked Arkansas, Southern Methodist and Texas Tech at the top with 4-1 records. Texas is at Texas Christian in a night game, Arkansas entertains SMU at Little Rock and Texas Tech visits Baylor.

Penn State, the nation's only unbeaten major independent, takes its third-place ranking and second-rated rushing defense to Maryland. Notre Dame, ranked ninth, faces Georgia Tech at home without Terry Hanratty, lost for the season with a knee injury. Sophomore Joe Theismann takes over.

Television fans are in for a doubleheader. Besides Oregon State-Southern Cal, ABC-TV will air a night game featuring 16th-ranked Alabama and Miami, Fla., in the Orange Bowl.

Area Trapshooters Slate Winter League

The Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association has announced plans for the formation of a winter trapshoot league.

Teams will be formed among club members and will shoot in competition for 20 weeks. Various trophies will be awarded at the end of the season.

Members interested in joining are to contact Harold Lewis, Ray Thompson or Ken Alford.

During a 16 - yard practice shoot Wednesday night, George Hercules hit 25 and Andy Dudick 24.

In the high gun shoots, Gary Tolson won two and Thompson one.

Top Knight Garden State Top Horse

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP) — The happy pastime at Garden State Park today was trying to find a horse who has a chance Saturday against Top Knight in the $321,660 added Garden State Stakes at Garden State Park.

Top Knight, owned by Steven B. Wilson of Miami, appears to be the class of a field of 10 entered for the mile and one-sixteenth event for 2-year-olds.

Top Knight, trained by Ray Metcalf, has earned $294,688 in eight races. He finished second twice and only once ran out of the money.

None of the other horses has won much of anything.

If all 10 start, the winner will get $187,596 with a $62,532 for second, $31,266 for third and $15,633 for fourth.

The colt given the best chance for an upset is Beau Brummel.

The best PGA golf tour scores of 1967 were 61s. They were turned in by Dave Hill at Hartford, Conn., and Gay Brewer at Pensacola, Fla.

Hull Gets Hat Trick, Hawks Nip Penguins

By The Associated Press

Red Sullivan has had his fill of the Chicago Black Hawks and Bobby Hull, thank you.

The Pittsburgh skipper watched the Hawks fire six goals into the Penguins' net for the second straight night Thursday and suffered through a 6-4 loss.

On Wednesday, the Hawks beat the Penguins 6-5 on Hull's goal with 17 seconds left to play. Thursday it was Hull again with the 22nd three goal-hat trick of his career sinking the Penguins.

In other NHL games, Toronto tripped Montreal 5-3, Philadelphia downed Boston 4-2 and Detroit turned back Los Angeles 5-2.

Hull scored all three of his goals in the second period but it took Jim Pappin's goal late in the period to give the Hawks a 4-3 lead over the battling Penguins. The trio gave Hull 13 for the season.

Then Bobby Schmautz scored a pair of third period goals 3½ minutes apart to wrap it up for Chicago.

The Maple Leafs bunched three goals in three minutes—two of them by Norm Ullman and Paul Henderson just 10 seconds apart—and tagged Montreal with its third loss in 14 games this season.

Yvan Cournoyer hit twice for the Canadiens before Ullman, Henderson and Murray Oliver put Toronto in control midway through the second period. Wayne Carleton and Mike Walton were Toronto's other scorers and Jacques Lemaire hit for the Canadiens.

Gary Dornhoefer, a former Bruin, scored two goals for Philadelphia and led the Flyers past Boston. Dornhoefer also engaged in two fights with Bobby Orr, and the talented Boston defenseman suffered a bruised right fist that will be X-rayed today.

Bernie Parent, another ex-Bruin, made 31 saves for Philadelphia, allowing only goals by Derek Sanderson and Phil Esposito. Brit Selby and Leon Rochefort were Philadelphia's other scorers.

Detroit broke Los Angeles' four-game winning streak behind ex-Kings' goalie Terry Sawchuk. The Red Wings scored three goals in the opening period and built a 5-0 lead before Gordon Labossiere and Ed Joyal spoiled Sawchuk's shutout bid with third-period goals.

Danny Lawson, Dean Prentice, Gary Bergman, Frank Mahovlich and Garry Unger produced the Detroit goals.

St. Albans, Charleston To Clash For AAA Title

By ED RICE

St. Albans will pass and Charleston will run when the two state high school Class AAA powers meet in the championship game Saturday in Parkersburg.

Charleston Coach Frank Vincent said: "I don't think it's any secret we'll do the thing we've done all year, run the football."

Vincent's St. Albans counterpart, Sam LeRose, said: "We're a passing team. We're not going to cut down, but we'll certainly watch where we throw them this time."

LeRose noted the Red Drag-27-7 last month by not being careful. He pointed out that touchdowns in the first five minutes on a fumble and two pass interceptions.

Why Parkersburg?

Stadium Field was selected as the neutral site after St. Albans objected to playing on Laidley Field in Charleston-home field for the Mountain Lions.

That question decided, both coaches agreed they were happy to be in the playoffs.

Vincent put it this way: "The football field in Parkersburg is just as wide and long as one anywhere else. We're just tickled to death to go to Parkersburg."

Medical Mirror

WATERLESS SHAMPOOS

Q. My mother is an invalid and it is difficult to shampoo her hair. How can I keep her hair well groomed?

A. You might try supplementing regular shampooing with a dry powder shampoo. Dry shampoos do not clean the hair as thoroughly as regular shampoos but use of such a product may extend the periods between regular shampoos.

HAIR REMOVAL BY X-RAY

Q. Are x-ray treatments safe for removing unwanted hair?

A. No. The removal of hair by x-ray or by any electrical ray of "special construction" is not safe. Many states outlaw the use of x-ray for such purpose by non-medical persons. Cancer formation at the site of treatment may be a serious complication when radiation is used to remove hair. The cancerous changes may occur up to 20 years or more after such "treatment."

Top Knight Garden State Top Horse

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP) — The happy pastime at Garden State Park today was trying to find a horse who has a chance Saturday against Top Knight in the $321,660 added Garden State Stakes at Garden State Park.

Top Knight, owned by Steven B. Wilson of Miami, appears to be the class of a field of 10 entered for the mile and one-sixteenth event for 2-year-olds.

Top Knight, trained by Ray Metcalf, has earned $294,688 in eight races. He finished second twice and only once ran out of the money.

None of the other horses has won much of anything.

If all 10 start, the winner will get $187,596 with a $62,532 for second, $31,266 for third and $15,633 for fourth.

The colt given the best chance for an upset is Beau Brummel.

The best PGA golf tour scores of 1967 were 61s. They were turned in by Dave Hill at Hartford, Conn., and Gay Brewer at Pensacola, Fla.

St. Albans, Charleston To Clash For AAA Title

By ED RICE

St. Albans will pass and Charleston will run when the two state high school Class AAA powers meet in the championship game Saturday in Parkersburg.

Charleston Coach Frank Vincent said: "I don't think it's any secret we'll do the thing we've done all year, run the football."

Vincent's St. Albans counterpart, Sam LeRose, said: "We're a passing team. We're not going to cut down, but we'll certainly watch where we throw them this time."

LeRose noted the Red Drag-27-7 last month by not being careful. He pointed out that touchdowns in the first five minutes on a fumble and two pass interceptions.

Why Parkersburg?

Stadium Field was selected as the neutral site after St. Albans objected to playing on Laidley Field in Charleston-home field for the Mountain Lions.

That question decided, both coaches agreed they were happy to be in the playoffs.

Vincent put it this way: "The football field in Parkersburg is just as wide and long as one anywhere else. We're just tickled to death to go to Parkersburg."

WATERLESS SHAMPOOS

Q. My mother is an invalid and it is difficult to shampoo her hair. How can I keep her hair well groomed?

A. You might try supplementing regular shampooing with a dry powder shampoo. Dry shampoos do not clean the hair as thoroughly as regular shampoos but use of such a product may extend the periods between regular shampoos.

HAIR REMOVAL BY X-RAY

Q. Are x-ray treatments safe for removing unwanted hair?

A. No. The removal of hair by x-ray or by any electrical ray of "special construction" is not safe. Many states outlaw the use of x-ray for such purpose by non-medical persons. Cancer formation at the site of treatment may be a serious complication when radiation is used to remove hair. The cancerous changes may occur up to 20 years or more after such "treatment."

Sohio announces the greatest winter gasoline improvement in 10 years...

"Quicker warm-up"..."Smoother idle"..."Better acceleration"
Motorists agree Ice-Tanes make a difference you can actually feel!

Read what car-owners said after trying Boron with Ice-Tanes in a service station test last winter.

'67 FORD —"My car doesn't balk or jerk after standing overnight."

'64 BUICK —"...no longer necessary to warm up my car in the morning."

'67 CHRYSLER —"...considerable improvement in cold-engine performance... would be impossible not to notice."

'58 THUNDERBIRD —"Engine does not have to warm up before it idles smoothly."

'64 RAMBLER AMERICAN —"Change was almost immediate...quieter, smoother overall operation, including idle."

'66 CADILLAC —"In the morning, after a cold start, the car was not sluggish and did not 'die-out' as before...smoother after cold start."

'68 CHEVROLET —"Positively smoother engine performance."

Hundreds of thousands of gallons of extra Pentanes and Hexanes are being added to Boron gasoline this winter, in Sohio's special Ice-Tanes blend. These extra Pentanes and Hexanes are volatility ingredients that improve the performance of gasoline at low temperatures. They make engines run so much better, people say they can actually feel the difference! "Faster warm-ups on cold mornings."..."Smoother idling after a cold start."... "Better acceleration." Motorists report they can back out into the street without the usual sluggishness and stalling, and drive smoothly away while other cars are still fighting the cold!

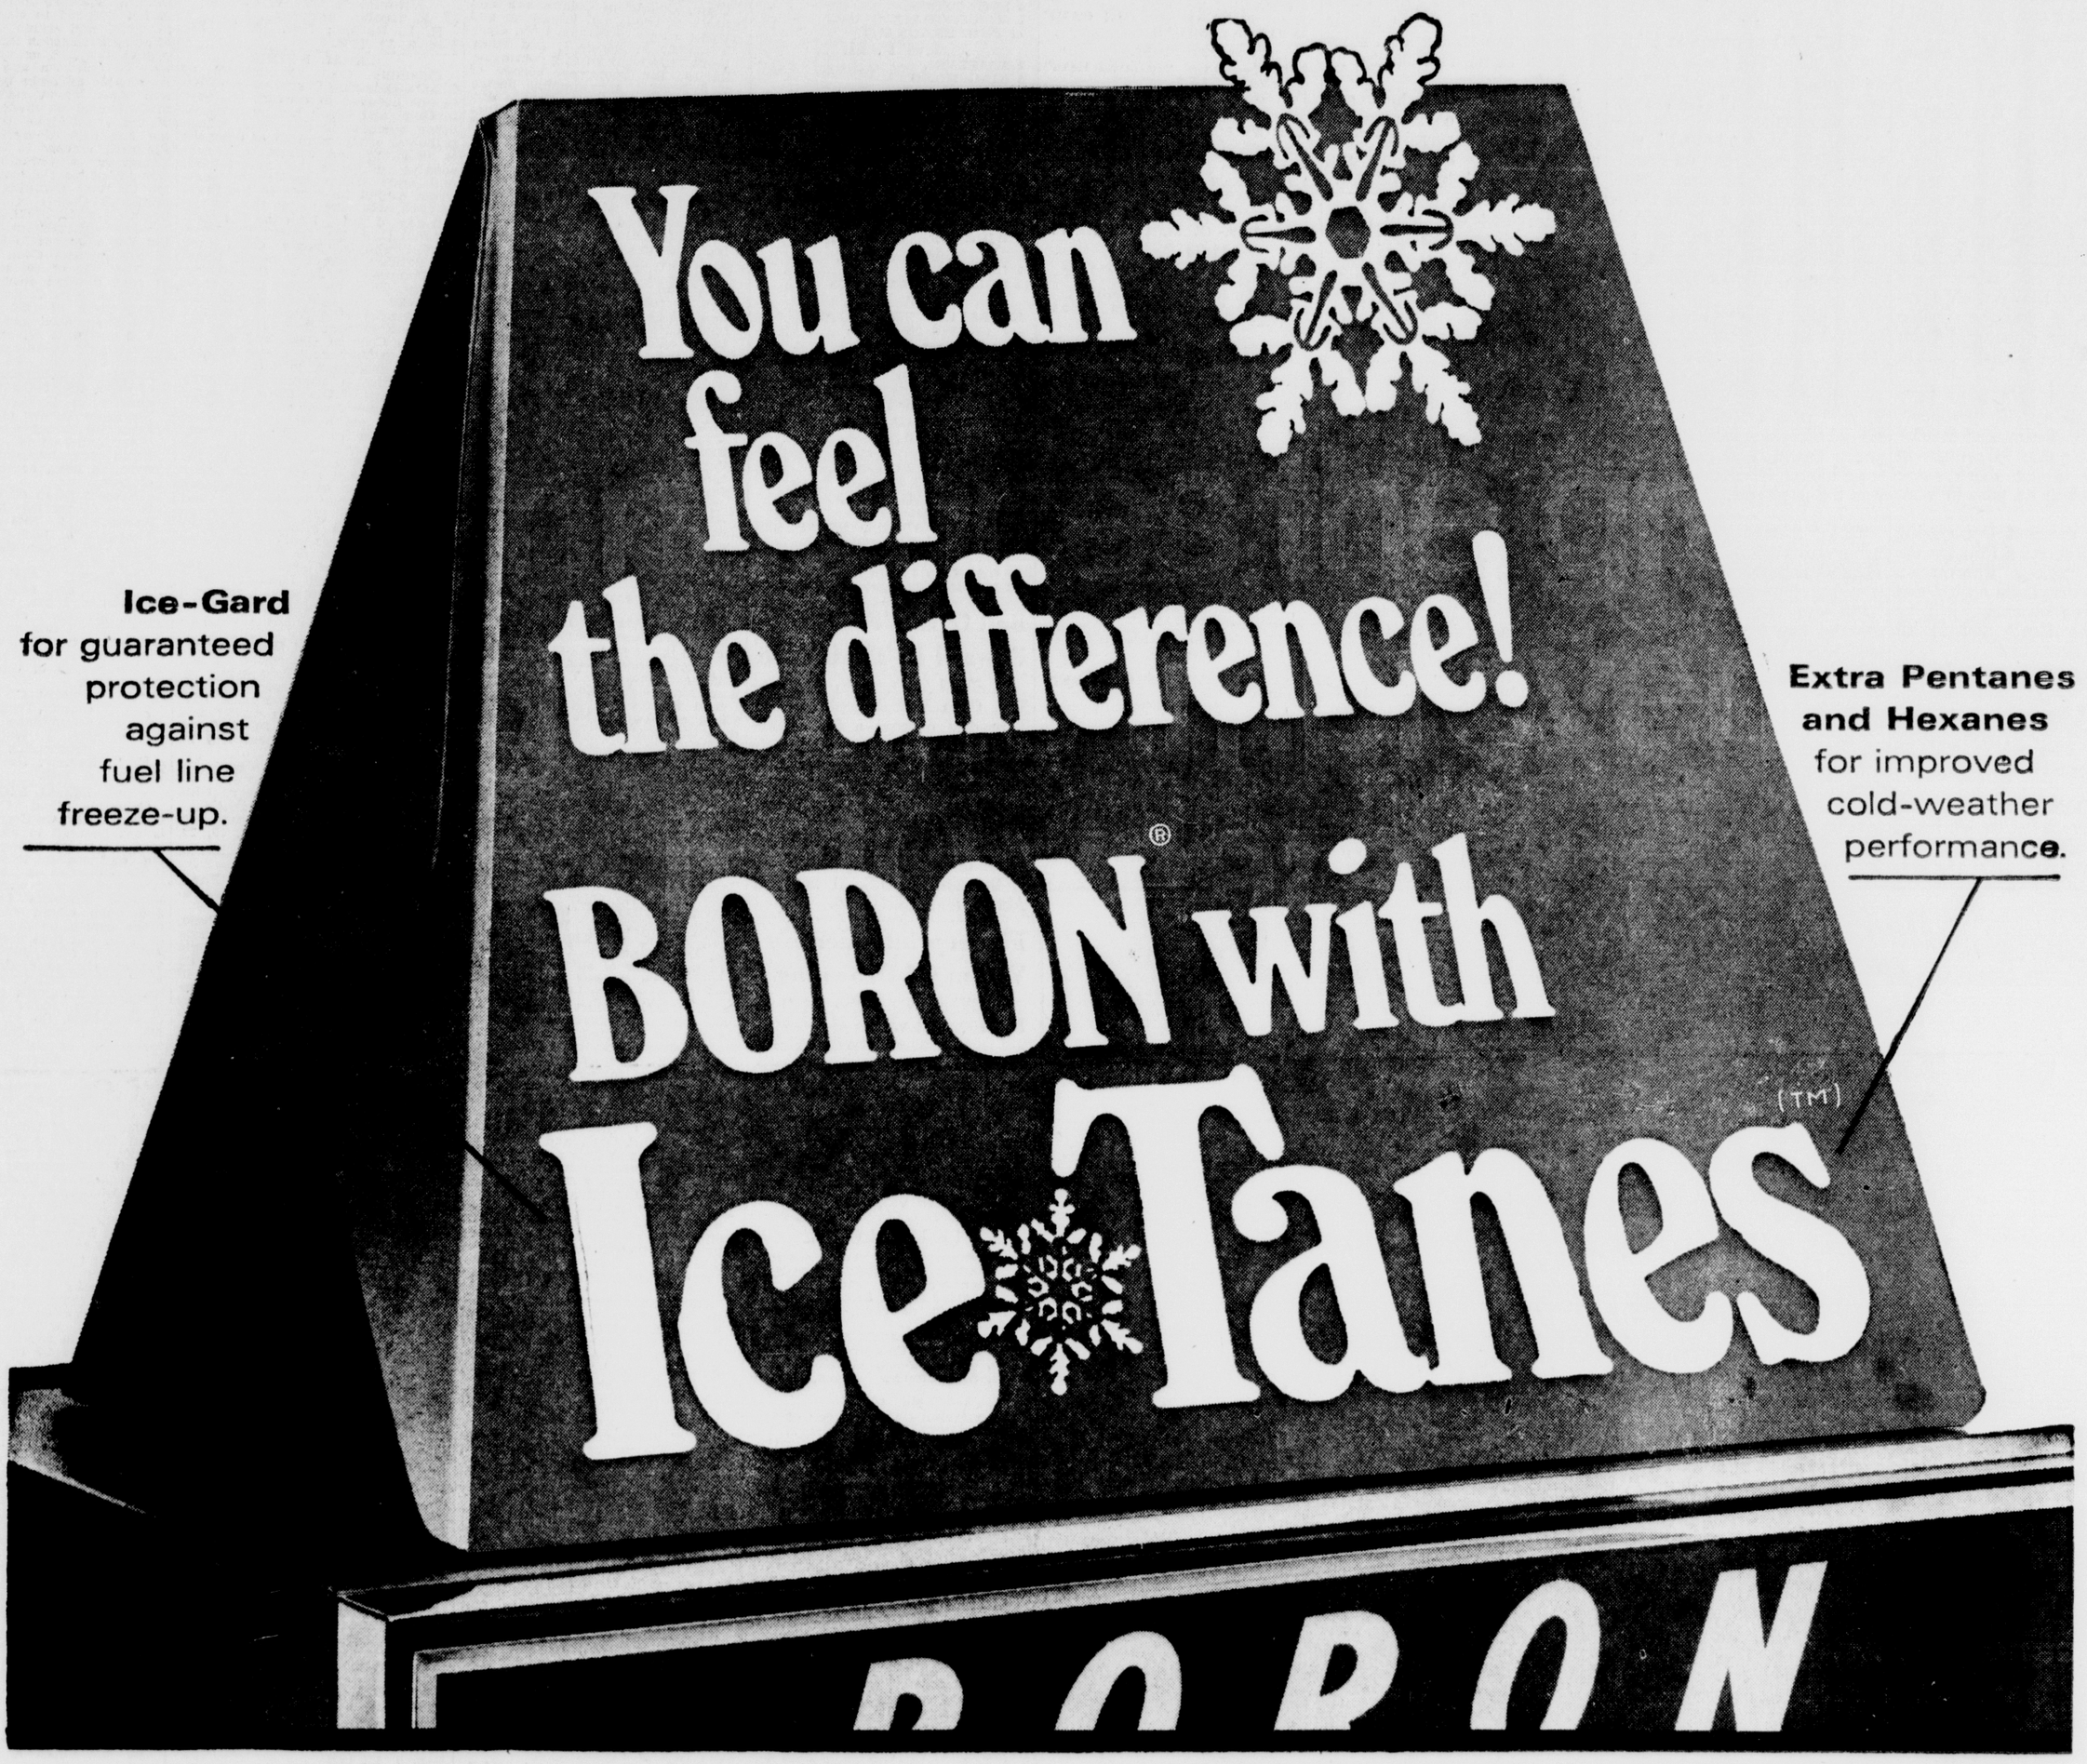

Guaranteed protection against costly freeze-up, too! Ice-Tanes also include Sohio's famous Ice-Gard ingredients, to protect against the two winter problems of carburetor icing and fuel line freeze-up. Boron with Ice-Tanes provides such effective protection it's the only gasoline with this double guarantee: no carburetor icing... no fuel line freeze-up, or Sohio pays your tow. Performance plus protection — you get both in Boron with Ice-Tanes. You'll never know how great the difference can be, till you try a tankful!

Switch to Boron with Ice-Tanes and take the 'winter" out of driving.

Latest Report On Don DeFore

What ever happened to Don de Fore after playing man of the house (George Baxter) on the "Hazel" series with Shirley Booth? Next Wednesday his fans can see him as sportswriter Rooter Baker on NBC's "Hall of Fame" drama, "A Punt, a Pass and a Prayer," which stars Hugh O'Brian in the story of a pro football player trying for a comeback.

Hal Humphrey

"Mine isn't a big role, but I like the character because he's a serious type, which is a contrast to all the comedy I've done," says Don, who also was Thorny on Ozzie and Harriet for five seasons.

-:-

EXCEPT for guesting earlier this month on NBC's daytime game show, "Snap Judgment," the "Hall of Fame" play is the first TV Don's bone since his four seasons of "Hazel" (he and Whitney Blake were replaced by a younger couple when the series switched from NBC to CBS for its final year in 1965-66).

Don reports he's been busy since then as a writer-producer, doing a bit of summer theater acting and going to Europe to show our troops there some films of a trip he took to Vietnam.

"At the moment I'm getting ready to produce a film for the United States Information Agency to distribute on TV and other places overseas. It'll be called 'The Beat' and is all about our new music.

"Hoagy Carmichael, Johnny Mercer, Jimmy Webb and Les Brown are helping me pick the various groups to appear in the 90-minute film which will be shot all around our country."

-:-

ALSO, DON is working on a screen play based on his book, "With All My Love," which was published three years ago and tells of his eldest daughter Penny's experiences as a physical therapist at a South Korean orphanage for crippled children.

Paramount and Universal were both interested in it for awhile, but didn't produce it, so now, with the help of the Korean Exchange Bank, Don has formed his own D-4 Productions and will do the film himself next year.

He still wants to act, though, and has from the day he enrolled in the Pasadena Playhouse drama school in the mid-'30s. Bill Holden, Dana Andrews, Alan Ladd and Victor Mature were there at the same time.

-:-

"I HEARD someone is thinking of doing 'The Male Animal' as a musical. Naturally, I'm interested in that," says Don, with emphasis.

"The Male Animal" was Don's first real break on Broadway. Producer Herman Shumlin had seen Don work at Provincetown Playhouse in the Village and hired him as the younger football player in the 1939 James Thurber-Elliot Nugent play.

Don didn't get into the movie (with Henry Fonda and Jack Carson), but in a silly remake of it about a stripper (Virginia Mayo), "She's Working Her Way Through College," Don played the older football player, which Carson had done in the original movie. Ronald Reagan was the professor.

THAT SAME YEAR of his Broadway debut, Don made what he believes was one of the first TV commercials.

"It was 1939, and the commercial was for the Silver Meteor train from New York to Miami. The idea was to show how simple it was to take the train, but with all the trouble we had doing that commercial at Grand Central Station, I'm not sure the message got across," recalls Don.

While in New York last September to tape next Wednesday's "Hall of Fame" drama, Don met Joan Fontaine, who he discovered was busy doing just the voices for several commercials.

"I found a lot of actors were doing these voice-over things and making big money, too, so I've signed to do a few," he says.

-:-

OF ALL THE MOVIES, plays and TV Don has done, he still seems proudest of a nonacting role he played as president of the TV Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1954.

"I personally sold the first Emmy Awards show to NBC for $25,000, which is nothing now, but at that time the networks simply weren't interested at all.

"It was a good show, too — I think one of the best Emmy shows they've had," says Don, who for once was playing the hero, instead of the hero's best friend.

James Monroe served as minister to France, Great Britain and Spain; as secretary of state and as secretary of war before he became president of the United States.

Bell Offers $10,000 Reward In Theft Case

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Thursday offered a $10,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of two men who stole nearly $15,000 in coins from a phone company truck last month.

Two holdup men forced the truck driver to pull his vehicle to the side of U.S. 21 between Akron and Cleveland.

Fingerprints Identify Victim Of Drowning

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The apparent victim of a drowning Oct. 24 was identified Thursday by fingerprints on file with the FBI and the Cleveland Police Department.

He was Robert Rolin, 19, of Cleveland, whose body was recovered from the Cuyahoga River. Police said his body bore no marks of violence.

"Mine isn't a big role, but I like the character because he's a serious type, which is a contrast to all the comedy I've done," says Don, who also was Thorny on Ozzie and Harriet for five seasons.

-:-

EXCEPT for guesting earlier this month on NBC's daytime game show, "Snap Judgment," the "Hall of Fame" play is the first TV Don's bone since his four seasons of "Hazel" (he and Whitney Blake were replaced by a younger couple when the series switched from NBC to CBS for its final year in 1965-66).

Don reports he's been busy since then as a writer-producer, doing a bit of summer theater acting and going to Europe to show our troops there some films of a trip he took to Vietnam.

"At the moment I'm getting ready to produce a film for the United States Information Agency to distribute on TV and other places overseas. It'll be called 'The Beat' and is all about our new music.

"Hoagy Carmichael, Johnny Mercer, Jimmy Webb and Les Brown are helping me pick the various groups to appear in the 90-minute film which will be shot all around our country."

-:-

ALSO, DON is working on a screen play based on his book, "With All My Love," which was published three years ago and tells of his eldest daughter Penny's experiences as a physical therapist at a South Korean orphanage for crippled children.

Paramount and Universal were both interested in it for awhile, but didn't produce it, so now, with the help of the Korean Exchange Bank, Don has formed his own D-4 Productions and will do the film himself next year.

He still wants to act, though, and has from the day he enrolled in the Pasadena Playhouse drama school in the mid-'30s. Bill Holden, Dana Andrews, Alan Ladd and Victor Mature were there at the same time.

-:-

"I HEARD someone is thinking of doing 'The Male Animal' as a musical. Naturally, I'm interested in that," says Don, with emphasis.

"The Male Animal" was Don's first real break on Broadway. Producer Herman Shumlin had seen Don work at Provincetown Playhouse in the Village and hired him as the younger football player in the 1939 James Thurber-Elliot Nugent play.

Don didn't get into the movie (with Henry Fonda and Jack Carson), but in a silly remake of it about a stripper (Virginia Mayo), "She's Working Her Way Through College," Don played the older football player, which Carson had done in the original movie. Ronald Reagan was the professor.

-:-

THAT SAME YEAR of his Broadway debut, Don made what he believes was one of the first TV commercials.

"It was 1939, and the commercial was for the Silver Meteor train from New York to Miami. The idea was to show how simple it was to take the train, but with all the trouble we had doing that commercial at Grand Central Station, I'm not sure the message got across," recalls Don.

While in New York last September to tape next Wednesday's "Hall of Fame" drama, Don met Joan Fontaine, who he discovered was busy doing just the voices for several commercials.

"I found a lot of actors were doing these voice-over things and making big money, too, so I've signed to do a few," he says.

-:-

OF ALL THE MOVIES, plays and TV Don has done, he still seems proudest of a nonacting role he played as president of the TV Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1954.

"I personally sold the first Emmy Awards show to NBC for $25,000, which is nothing now, but at that time the networks simply weren't interested at all.

"It was a good show, too — I think one of the best Emmy shows they've had," says Don, who for once was playing the hero, instead of the hero's best friend.

James Monroe served as minister to France, Great Britain and Spain; as secretary of state and as secretary of war before he became president of the United States.

Bell Offers $10,000 Reward In Theft Case

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Thursday offered a $10,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of two men who stole nearly $15,000 in coins from a phone company truck last month.

Two holdup men forced the truck driver to pull his vehicle to the side of U.S. 21 between Akron and Cleveland.

Fingerprints Identify Victim Of Drowning

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The apparent victim of a drowning Oct. 24 was identified Thursday by fingerprints on file with the FBI and the Cleveland Police Department.

He was Robert Rolin, 19, of Cleveland, whose body was recovered from the Cuyahoga River. Police said his body bore no marks of violence.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Karl Thoman who passed away 3 years ago today. Our hearts were broken that fateful day, That God came and took you away. Beside your grave we kneel and weep, For the one we love is there asleep. The memories you have left behind, Of how you loved us and were so kind. Our home is empty without your face, No one could ever take your place. So God forgive our silent tears, As we weep for the one we love so dear.
—Wife Anne, sons and families.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Karl Thoman who passed away 3 years ago today. Our hearts were broken that fateful day, That God came and took you away. Beside your grave we kneel and weep, For the one we love is there asleep. The memories you have left behind, Of how you loved us and were so kind. Our home is empty without your face, No one could ever take your place. So God forgive our silent tears, As we weep for the one we love so dear.
—Wife Anne, sons and families.

DOWNTOWN
One story five room home, convenient to shopping, located on a level corner lot at 776 FENTON ST. Living room, dining room, kitchen, bedroom and bath. Full cement basement with almost new gas furnace. This is ideal for a couple that want "one floor living" close to town and with a small investment of $5,500.

GLENMOOR
"Just like new" five room ranch style home on 125 x 550 level lot out MILBOURE AVE. Large living room with picture window, three nice bedrooms with lots of storage space. Tiled bath and built-in kitchen with oven and range, custom cabinets and breakfast bar. Full cement basement, divided into office or recreation room, plus workshop area. Breezeway connects an oversize double garage. Solid plaster "whole house" carpeting —even an outdoor fireplace and picnic grove. This is an extremely desirable property—new, privately situated and priced at under $15,000.

DOWNTOWN
Well maintained six room and bath home on 120 x 120 ft. lot at 1028 EPHRIAM ST. Living room with fireplace, two nice bedrooms, dining room, TV room, bath and full basement with gas furnace. Asking $5,500.

Junior Editors Quiz on NUMBERS

QUESTION: What higher numbers come after thousands, millions and billions?

* * *

ANSWER: We use the decimal system of numbers based on 10s, which is thought to have originated because ancient peoples used their 10 fingers to reckon with. Starting with a digit like 1, ten times this gives us 10, indicated by a zero to the right. Ten times 10 gets us into the hundreds group, and 10 times these into the thousands, with zeros added at each jump. Large numbers are written by separating the numerals into groups of three figures, followed by a comma (upper left). These groups are named periods, and our picture shows the periods as steps, each with a number boy on it. We don't have room for all the boys; there are 13 more, going up to the vigintillion boy, who represents 1 followed by 63 zeros. The almost unthinkable numbers higher than this are often suggested by the word googol, which is also defined as 1 followed by 100 zeros. Even higher is the puzzling googolplex, 10 multiplied by itself a googol number of times. You try to figure this out. It makes the writer's head swim.

* * *

(Lynn Pilchik of St. Cathatines, Ont., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected by a prize).

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Nov. 15, the 320th day of 1968. There are 46 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On his date in 1777, the Articles of Confederation were approved by the Continental Congress. The document was the law of the land until the Constitution went into effect.

In 1492, Christopher Columbus noted in his journal the use of tobacco among the Indians. It was the first recorded reference to tobacco.

In 1805, the Lewis and Clark expedition reached the mouth of the Columbia River after the long trek across the West.

In 1806, Pike's Peak in Colorado was discovered by the explorer Zebulon Montgomery Pike.

In 1889, the Republic of Brazil was founded.

In 1920, the assembly of the League of Nations held its first meeting in Geneva, Switzerland.

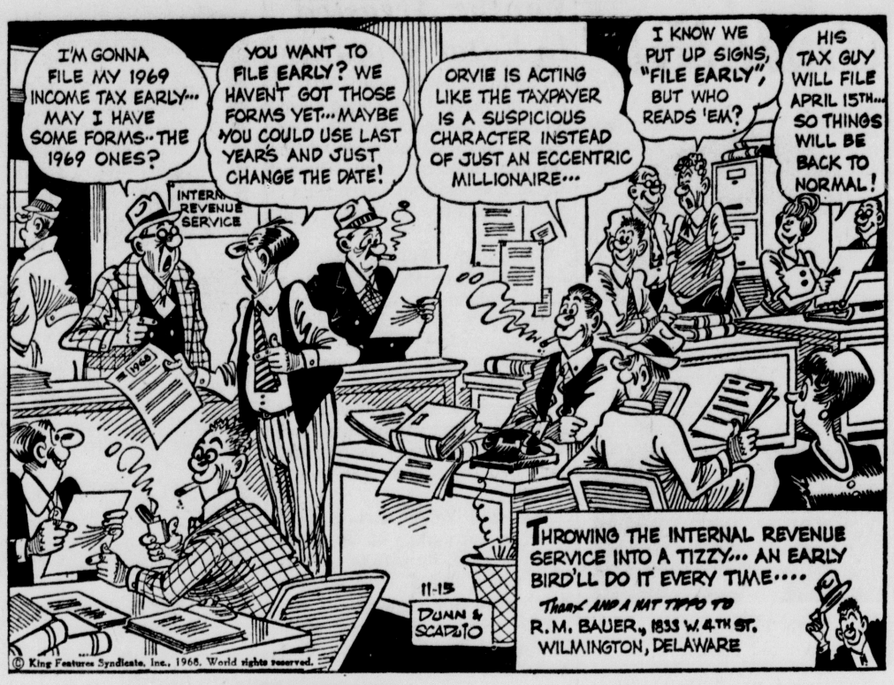

In 1935, Manuel Quezon was inaugurated as the first president of the Philippines Commonwealth.

One year ago .... The United States agreed to begin talks with Japan about the early return of some of the Pacific Islands the U.S. captured in World War II.

THE BORN LOSER

The DOCTOR Says

X-Ray Jargon Needs Translating

Q—My X ray showed hypertrophic lipping in the midthoracic bodies anteriorly. What does that mean?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—Bony spurs from the front or forward surface of the vertebrae in the midportion of the series attached to the ribs have made a bridge between adjacent vertebral bodies. Such changes are often seen in persons with chronic arthritis of the spine.

Q—Please explain these X-ray findings: Discopathy of L-5 and S-1 and lumbar kyphosis.

A—Pathologic changes are present in the gelatinous disk between your fifth lumbar and first sacral vertebrae and you have a forward curvature of the lumbar series of vertebrae.

Q—The doctor says my wife has coccydynia. Her only relief has been to sit on a hard bench. What do you suggest?

A—Coccydynia is pain at the lower end of the spine. The use of an electric heating pad often gives relief but care must be taken not to burn the skin. If the cause of the pain can be determined, steps should be taken to remove it.

Q.—I was recently told that I have Hailey - Hailey's disease. What causes it and is there any cure?

A—This skin disease is also known as chronic benign familial pemphigus, recurrent herpetiform dermatitis repens, bullous Darrier's disease or dyskeratosis bullosa hereditaria. Few persons have the fortitude to tangle with a disease that has such an imposing set of titles but those who have can console themselves that it is not serious. It is characterized by mildly itching blisters on the neck, armpits and arms. It is hereditary and usually clears up spontaneously, only to return at intervals. There is no effective treatment.

Q.—I am 30 years old and after the birth of my last child have developed spider veins on both my thighs. What causes them? I have heard that they can be removed with an electric needle. Would a general surgeon or a skin specialist do this?

A—Spider veins are commonly associated with aging and with pregnancy. Heredity may also be a factor. If you would rather have them removed with an electric needle than cover them with a masking cosmetic, you should consult a skin specialist. You should, however, be prepared to find new crops developing from time to time.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Veterans' Group Hears Physician

COLUMBIANA — Dr. James R. Moorehead, local physician, entertained the Senior Veterans Club Thursday noon at the New Springfield VFW hall with comments on his travels and experiences as a doctor.

Commenting on the Olympic Games in Mexico City, he said, "You watching on TV at home saw them better than we did." He also recited a couple of poems from McGuffey readers.

Eighty-two World War I veterans attended the monthly dinner meeting. Ralph Reddington of Columbiana, vice president, presided.

The next meeting will be at 12:30 p. m. Dec. 12 in the First Christian Church at Lisbon. Ross Fox of Lisbon will be program chairman.

Meeting Date Change Okayed By Firemen

New bylaws were approved Tuesday night, changing the meeting date of Lawrenceville firemen from Tuesday to the first and third Thursdays of the month.

Allen Simms of Route 30 and Robert Seevers of Lycia Ave. submitted applications for membership.

The firemen reported a brush jeep has been taken out of service for major repairs.

Okey Leasure, president, presided. The next meeting will be Nov. 26.

Teachers, Pupils Join In Reunion

Some 90 former teachers and pupils of the old Bowman's School attended a reunion at the Guilford Grange Hall.

A coverdish dinner was served at 1. The invocation was by George Keich of Lisbon.

One of the oldest persons present was Blaine Bowman of Ravenna, who attended the school in the 1890's.

Former teachers on hand were Alta Armstrong Baker of New Garden, Florence Snow Carlisle of Lisbon, Miss Dorothy Hildebrand of Lisbon and Lawrence Walton of Salem RD.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Houlette of Leetonia RD 2 and Mrs. Milan Camp of Salem RD 3 planned the reunion.

A log structure served as the first Bowman's School, built in the early 1800's. The first teacher was John J. Bowman, a member of a pioneer family. Later, the Bowman family donated land for a new frame building, located near the Sandy and Beaver Canal, and near the site of the old Cold Run Academy.

Children from the former school district are now enrolled in the Lisbon and United Local systems.

Two Youngstown Youths Arrested In Fatal Shooting

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Two 18 - year - old Youngstown youths have been arrested by police here for questioning in the fatal shooting early Thursday of a 43-year-old Farrell, Pa., man in Hubbard Township near Warren.

The victim, William Zelch, a steel mill foreman, died from a bullet wound in the stomach made by a .25 - caliber pistol. Police confiscated a .25-caliber pistol from one of the youths, they said.

Police also said a 37-year-old Middlesex, Pa., woman who had been traveling with Zelch, had identified the slayer in a police lineup.

She said Zelch was gunned down in the middle of Ohio 304, north of here, by a man from a car which had bumped the Zelch auto from behind.

Zelch died a half hour after he was admitted to Sharon, Pa., Hospital.

Later in the morning, Youngstown police arrested one of the youths who, they said, was driving a car stolen about a mile from where Zelch was shot. Police said he had a .25-caliber pistol.

The other youth was apprehended in a burglary attempt, they said.

The conclave that elected Pope Gregory X in 1271 took two years and nine months — the longest on record.

The DOCTOR Says

X-Ray Jargon Needs Translating

Q—My X ray showed hypertrophic lipping in the midthoracic bodies anteriorly. What does that mean?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — Bony spurs from the front or forward surface of the vertebrae in the midportion of the series attached to the ribs have made a bridge between adjacent vertebral bodies. Such changes are often seen in persons with chronic arthritis of the spine.

Q—Please explain these X-ray findings: Discopathy of L-5 and S-1 and lumbar kyphosis.

A—Pathologic changes are present in the gelatinous disk between your fifth lumbar and first sacral vertebrae and you have a forward curvature of the lumbar series of vertebrae.

Q—The doctor says my wife has coccydynia. Her only relief has been to sit on a hard bench. What do you suggest?

A—Coccydynia is pain at the lower end of the spine. The use of an electric heating pad often gives relief but care must be taken not to burn the skin. If the cause of the pain can be determined, steps should be taken to remove it.

Q.—I was recently told that I have Hailey - Hailey's disease. What causes it and is there any cure?

A—This skin disease is also known as chronic benign familial pemphigus, recurrent herpetiform dermatitis repens, bullous Darrier's disease or dyskeratosis bullosa hereditaria. Few persons have the fortitude to tangle with a disease that has such an imposing set of titles but those who have can console themselves that it is not serious. It is characterized by mildly itching blisters on the neck, armpits and arms. It is hereditary and usually clears up spontaneously, only to return at intervals. There is no effective treatment.

Q.—I am 30 years old and after the birth of my last child have developed spider veins on both my thighs. What causes them? I have heard that they can be removed with an electric needle. Would a general surgeon or a skin specialist do this?

A—Spider veins are commonly associated with aging and with pregnancy. Heredity may also be a factor. If you would rather have them removed with an electric needle than cover them with a masking cosmetic, you should consult a skin specialist. You should, however, be prepared to find new crops developing from time to time.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Veterans' Group Hears Physician

COLUMBIANA — Dr. James R. Moorehead, local physician, entertained the Senior Veterans Club Thursday noon at the New Springfield VFW hall with comments on his travels and experiences as a doctor.

Commenting on the Olympic Games in Mexico City, he said, "You watching on TV at home saw them better than we did." He also recited a couple of poems from McGuffey readers.

Eighty-two World War I veterans attended the monthly dinner meeting. Ralph Reddington of Columbiana, vice president, presided.

The next meeting will be at 12:30 p. m. Dec. 12 in the First Christian Church at Lisbon. Ross Fox of Lisbon will be program chairman.

Meeting Date Change Okayed By Firemen

New bylaws were approved Tuesday night, changing the meeting date of Lawrenceville firemen from Tuesday to the first and third Thursdays of the month.

Allen Simms of Route 30 and Robert Seevers of Lycia Ave. submitted applications for membership.

The firemen reported a brush jeep has been taken out of service for major repairs.

Okey Leasure, president, presided. The next meeting will be Nov. 26.
